NOTE:
It appears to me that the DAR place the marker on George the son, when it should have been George the father's grave. But, no one knows where the father is buried.
Or the DAR back then, claimed that he was ... providing material support for the Revolution because George (1757-1859) once held the horse of General George Washington. That would be a hoot and a haller, to borrow an older phrase! JRC

Carpenter 1757-1859 was in the Rev, War, No pension papers, that I can find, his son Jacob reports in the Portrait and Biographical Record, Genesee, Lapeer, and Tuscola Counties, Chicago Chapman Bros 1892: " his father, George Carpenter, who lived to be one hundred and three years old, belonged to a Quaker family. He was a little boy at the time of the Revolutionary War, and loved to recount that he had the privilege of holding on to Gen. Washington's horse on one occasion. He was afflicted with a trouble of the eyes which made him nearly blind when he was twenty years of age...." this is a question for me. (If he had fought in the war I think it would be told here.) Also, the last census he is listed as 88 years old in 1850. I don't question the DAR records, they do! I am researching all local newspaper for information, so far nothing on a date of the grave maker. I am not in question of GC 1729-1811 only on GC 1757 - 1859 and only because I think it is important to be correct. I will keep in touch, Sincerely, Dawn

Subject: [CARPENTER] Zeno Carpenter 1762
In an attempt to correct much of the erroneous information regarding Zeno Carpenter born May 18, 1762 in North Castle, Westchester, NY. As posted in the Feb 7, 1851 Quaker newsletter THE FRIEND as a memoir/obituary for Zeno Carpenter, son of William and Sarah Seaman Carpenter. This is an excerpt from: "A Memoir of Friends in Smyrna, concerning our beloved Friend Zeno CARPENTER, a member and minister of New Hartford Monthly Meeting."
This our dear Friend, according to his own account, was born in North Castle, Westchester county, New York, the 18th of Fifth month, 1762, of honest parents professing the Troth, viz., William and Sarah Carpenter. He was received a member of the Society of Friends; and about his twenty-fourth year, he was joined in marriage with Lydia Clark. In reference thereto he says, "I have and do believe, that it was the pointings of best Wisdom that we were joined together."
In 1813 he lost his beloved wife, which proved a close trial to him, yet he was favoured to resign all up to the Lord. In adverting to which he says, "1 feel in a very tried, lonely situation, no other to rely upon but God alone, who is my Rock, my Refuge, and safe hiding place."
In 1815, he removed within the limits of Bridgewater Monthly Meeting, of which Smyrna was then a branch. In 1817 he was married to Sarah Hoag and in 1822 removed to Utica, where he spent the most of the remainder of his days.

He quietly breathed his last the 23rd of Third month, 1849, aged 86 years. Now gathered home like a shock of corn fully ripe. " Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."
This Zeno was never married to Hannah Van Duerson.

On the voyage his wife gave birth to his son Willet, who, as far as the above reasearcher can tell was their only child.
Col. Willett Carpenter became an extensive ship owner and afterwards in partnership with David hatfield, was a prosperous merchant at St. John. He was communicant of Trinty Episcopal Church, St. John, and a man well known in the community for his ability and honest dealing.

From: Bakergen@aol.com

Under the #83 Archelaus Carpenter you have #2 child Elizabeth md. to Caleb Green. This is an error in the Carpenter book. His name was James Green... in one land grant he is referred to as Thomas Lewis James Green, but James is what he referred to himself in his will. I have a copy of a picture of James (his son-in-law was noted watercolorist Anthony Flower). They lived near the Carpenters on Washdamoak Lake in New Brunswick and the Carpenter and Green families later intermarried again... but not my line.
Notes for ELIZABETH CARPENTER:

The incorrect info that has been sent to me and that I have seen posted on the Internet showed Elizabeth Carpenter married (1) Havelock Mosher and (2) James Green, and had three children with Mosher - Berton, Kenneth and Sara, which makes me very ancient indeed.

As far as my New Brunswick ancestors go, I have copies of the microfilmed original documents that I ordered from the Provincial Archives of New Brunswick; i.e. an 1811 petition for land where James Green stated his age and the PANB record (Loyalist documents) stating that Elizabeth Green (Elizabeth Carpenter) was still alive in 1845. Luckily for descendants of Elizabeth (Carpenter) Green and James Green, one of their daughters, Mary, married Anthony Flower who painted many pictures of family and friends in the early to later part of the 1800s. I found a baptismal record on a GenWeb site for their youngest daughter Catherine Green that described her as "Black adult born 4 Oct 1802". I was smitten with the idea that I could be a "sista"HIPS Firewall enforcing packet but decided I'd better check it out. I contacted the transcriber who sent me a jpeg of the document. I replied that it looked to me like it was the father's occupation of Blacksmith and he agreed.

I realize the huge importance of documentation. Two of my female ancestors married to Moshers were Mayflower descendants and though the GSMD is very strict about documentation, as they should be, I currently have membership in the Society as a descendant of four heads of families. Finding documentation to prove my Margaret Ann Pineo's descent from Miles Standish and Henry Samson has proven to be much more difficult! But that's one of the most challenging and enjoyable parts of genealogy.

There was a Thomas and Thomas, Jr., who served in the Revolutionary War from Dutchess County.
MISC: There is no Thomas, Jr. in the above record. The Thomas Frost who married Phebe Carpenter (daughter of Archelaus & Rebecca (Goulding) Carpenter) was probably the Thomas, Jr. that should be a son to Thomas Frost born 17 May 1718. See below.
THOMAS FROST, who d. between 1774-1783, m. Phebe, b. July 7, 1764, daughter of Archelaus (Hercules, Ar'cles) and Rebecca (Goulding) Carpenter. The compiler has been unable to learn whom the parents of the above Thomas were, but there is a tradition in the family that his son Archelaus was born and raised on Long Island and that the family were a "well-to-do" one, owning their slaves, etc., and that Thomas had a brother who went to Nova Scotia.

Subject: Nathaniel Paine & Mary Carpenter
I note at Rootsweb that you list no children of the above. I have a death certificate for Lucretia Jane Paine Lamson which has her parents as Nathaniel Paine and Mary Carpenter. Lucretia was born August 1828 in Otsego Co. NY and died September 30, 1907 in Rochester NY. Do I assume that you have this info but just haven't put it on the web, perhaps because that is the end of the Carpenter name in that line. The possibility that I have a piece of information that someone like yourself doesn"t just doesn't seem likely, to say the least.Incidently, Lucretia was my gggrandmother.
Thank You. Thomas A. Flood

> Hi John,
> I have completed the "Willoughby" lineage, with out the good Doctor's > biography, by locating a copy of his wife's obituary for her death on May > 26, 2007. This family does in fact descend from Jeremiah Carpenter through > his son Gardner who married Ida Willoughby about 1812. Unfortunately, it

> If you don't recall, he had researched this area and advised me that the

Part II. Family sketches
William Ansley was born in Massachusetts in 1773, removed with his parents to Pennsylvania when about four years old, was educated and reared a farmer. In 1792 he in company with Powel Carpenter walked from Lackawanna county, Pa., with nothing but the clothes they wore, and their axes on their shoulders, settled together in Ontario county, N. Y., on the preemption line, five miles southwest of Geneva that then contained one frame and some half dozen log houses. Mr. Carpenter removed a few years later from here to Monroe county, and settled in the town of Scottsville, where he spent the remainder of his days. He served a number of years as one of the judges of that county.

Hello John,
I've just been - yet again- having a look at the Carpenter Cousins pages. I've noticed a couple of errors in the family of my 3x great grandmother, Abigail CARPENTER, her husband, Daniel DEAN, and their offspring. I'm pretty sure of my facts, as i have information from family documents as well as Quaker records for Abigail and husband Daniel.

I'm giving you my direct line to Abigail, for context:
Me:
Elizabeth Gail Stringer, born 1950, Vancouver, BC, Canada
Marian Lowe, b. 1924, Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada
Edward Lowe, b. 1883, Ypsilanti, Michigan
Mary Angeline Davis. b. 1856, Troy, Oakland, Michigan
Phebe Titus Dean b. 1812, Cornwall, Orange, N.Y.
* Abigail CARPENTER b. 1776, Newcastle, Westchester, NY
Benedict CARPENTER, B. 1740, Scarsdale, Westchester, NY
Benedict CARPENTER, b. 1717 Musketa Cove, NY
William CARPENTER, B. 1666, Pawtucket, Providence, RI
Joseph CARPENTER (R.I.) and Hannah CARPENTER, Rehoboth
William CARPENTER (RI) and William CARPENTER (Rehoboth)

I'm not sure if this document is still being updated, but just in case, though I would offer these corrections. Abigail Carpenter and Daniel Dean were married in 1802, in Cornwall, Orange Co, NY. This marriage is confirmed in Quaker records: Records from "Rochester Monthly Meeting, Monroe County, New York: Quaker Records" related to Dean family, found on Ancestry.com.

Here is what is stated in the Carpenter Cousins:
606. Abigail Carpenter (Benedict , Benedict , William , Joseph , William) was born on 19 Apr 1776 in , Westchester, NY. She died on 18 Aug 1865.

[Notes]
Abigail married Daniel Dean about 1788/1790 in ,, NY. Daniel was born about 1767 in ,, NY.

They had the following children.

1440 F i Elizabeth Dean was born about 1797 in ,, NY.

1441 F ii Hannah Dean was born about 1799 in ,, NY.

1442 F iii Mary Cox Dean Dean was born about 1802 in ,, NY.

1443 M iv Daniel Dean was born about 1805 in ,, NY.

1444 F v Phebe T. Dean was born on 11 May 1812 in Cornwall, Orange, NY. She died on 21 Mar 1872.
[Notes]

Although Phebe Titus Dean's birthdate is correct (perhaps because I provided this a couple of years ago in correspondence to either you or Gene Z?), the dates of her siblings are incorrect. As well, Mary's middle name was Chandler, not Cox; Cox was her married surname.

I do have more information on her siblings, which I'm happy to provide if you think it might be a good idea.

I see that Abigail's husband, Daniel Dean has a given "about" birth date. I've been searching for his birth date, place and parents for 4 years now, and still haven't found any reliable information. There have been many unsupported, and some clearly incorrect dates/places/parents for him on Ancestry.com, but a little probing either disproved them. I've even done autosomal testing with 2 companies now, hoping to turn up a Dean cousin. I've been corresponding with other Dean researchers, and we have some theories, but nothing solid yet. So every now and then I check the Carpenter pages to see if Daniel has come into focus!

Oh yes - all the above Dean children were born in Cornwall, Orange, NY, according to Quaker records.

Thanks for making all this information public for researchers like me!

I do have the death certificate of Roxse Carpenter and it states her father was Levi Carpenter and her mother "Mariah".Of course it does not have "Mariah's" maiden name.I was wondering if "Mariah" could have been a first marriage and died when Roxse was born and that Levi then married Fanny Sutton.Any and all help would really be appreciated.I have also been told there are many mistakes in the "Famous" Amos book and some families were mixed up and the errors continue.I do not have the book but plan to purchase one.Thanks for your time and patience-----Joyce

Thank you for the quick response and the data that you sent. I think that we have a match except I have the mother of Augustus-26308 as Elizabeth or Betsey (1850 & 1860 federal census) rather than Sally Tompkins-26305. I wonder if there were two wives or do I have the wrong Augustus?
Sincerely, Bill Montgomery.

Mary Ryder

Per the book, The Carpenter Family in America, 1901 by Daniel H. Carpenter.
"On Christmas day, Monday, December 26, 1881, I [DHC] went to Pleasantville and visited Mrs. Mary Carpenter (widow of David R.). She was 80 years old, very smart and active. She got dinner for me herself, all the rest of the household being absent. She showed me the Bible given to her by her father just after her marriage; it was published by Samuel Wood & Sons, 1825, and from it I copied the family record. [NOTE] One part of the record had been copied from a slip of paper which had been written out by Mr. A. B. Carpenter, of Vermont, who about 1850 visited the family (the slip was in the Bible). This part, referring to Mercy Coles as being the wife of William Carpenter (taken from Thompson's History of Long Island), has since been shown to be an error, and the part of this Bible record previous to Timothy, 1740, should properly be erased, as at some future time it may be taken as an authoritative record and so mislead those not knowing how it came there. 754. Freelove Carpenter Number 321 in the book, The Carpenter Family in America by Daniel H. Carpenter, 1901. More information on page 178.

!BIRTH: In Queens county because Nassau county was created in 1898.
DEATH:Burial Grounds attached to the Searingtown Methodist Episcopal Church is a memorial stone erected to Freelove and John Searing. By a curious mistake, no mention is made that "Freelove Coles" was the wife first of Rev. John Searing, by whose side she sleeps, then Jesse Coles of Tarrytown. The grave stones are close to the easterly side on the church. They read:
Rev. John Searing died Oct. 29, 1815 aged 46 years AND Freelove Coles died Oct. 17, 1843 aged 69 years.

James Townsend Carpenter

Under the #83 Archelaus Carpenter you have #2 child Elizabeth md. to Caleb Green. This is an error in the Carpenter book. His name was James Green... in one land grant he is referred to as Thomas Lewis James Green, but James is what he referred to himself in his will. I have a copy of a picture of James (his son-in-law was noted watercolorist Anthony Flower). They lived near the Carpenters on Washdamoak Lake in New Brunswick and the Carpenter and Green families later intermarried again... but not my line.
Notes for ELIZABETH CARPENTER:
Number 224 in the book, Carpenter Family in America, 1901 by Daniel H. Carpenter. She either remained in North Castle or else returned there at an early day.

The incorrect info that has been sent to me and that I have seen posted on the Internet showed Elizabeth Carpenter married (1) Havelock Mosher and (2) James Green, and had three children with Mosher - Berton, Kenneth and Sara, which makes me very ancient indeed.

As far as my New Brunswick ancestors go, I have copies of the microfilmed original documents that I ordered from the Provincial Archives of New Brunswick; i.e. an 1811 petition for land where James Green stated his age and the PANB record (Loyalist documents) stating that Elizabeth Green (Elizabeth Carpenter) was still alive in 1845. Luckily for descendants of Elizabeth (Carpenter) Green and James Green, one of their daughters, Mary, married Anthony Flower who painted many pictures of family and friends in the early to later part of the 1800s. I found a baptismal record on a GenWeb site for their youngest daughter Catherine Green that described her as "Black adult born 4 Oct 1802". I was smitten with the idea that I could be a "sista"HIPS Firewall enforcing packet but decided I'd better check it out. I contacted the transcriber who sent me a jpeg of the document. I replied that it looked to me like it was the father's occupation of Blacksmith and he agreed.

I realize the huge importance of documentation. Two of my female ancestors married to Moshers were Mayflower descendants and though the GSMD is very strict about documentation, as they should be, I currently have membership in the Society as a descendant of four heads of families. Finding documentation to prove my Margaret Ann Pineo's descent from Miles Standish and Henry Samson has proven to be much more difficult! But that's one of the most challenging and enjoyable parts of genealogy.

for a pension that revealed which one and her maiden name.
NOTE: The other Rufus, son of Christian, son of Robert then Zophar. Same ancestor as this Rufus.

1743. Jeremiah Carpenter

Garrard county was created out of Madison in 1797.
Some researchers do not agree that Jeremiah belongs in this family.

733. Robert Carpenter

BIRTH: 29 Apr 1783 in Charles Carpenter record, 29 May 1783 in another record. Not born in Augusta county, VA. He was born in Madison county, KY.
Terry Lee Carpenter comments:
Perhaps it should also be noted that no birth date is given on Robert's gravestone -- his date of birth has been calculated from his age at death, 81 years, 11 months, and 24 days on 22 Mar 1865, which works out to 26 Mar 1783 by most calculators. Calculating age at death depended on the memory of the individual or his family and the math skills of the person doing the calculation, so could be off by a significant amount. Different transcribers get different day and month numbers, but agree on the 1783 year. TLC

NOTE: This area was Kentucky county, VA before 1780. After 1780 it was Lincoln county, VA then KY then in 1786 Madison KY Territory. In 1792 KY became a state.
Garrad County, KY was formed in 1797.
Robert Carpenter moved to Missouri or Kansas about 1852?
He is not Robert Carpenter-20271 who is from a Zimmerman line.

CHILDREN: Children order and no birth dates given in both records, except as indicated.

He was of Coyeman's, Columbia county.
This descendant line is from Cheri Nolan who submitted it as a querry in July 1999. "The following information is from the Bible of Julia Smith Davis and in the possession of Paul Davis, Erie, PA. The information was there, but not the relationships. I sent for death certificates and through them and was able to determine who the parents of Julia's mother, Charity Carpenter was. From there, I took the e first wife and her children, then who was the second wife and her children. I determined Elizabeth's first husband was from the Bible records." Per Cheri Nolan.

Page 42: 12. John (16) Carpenter was born circa 1764 on the Jackson River, served in the Revolutionary War from Botetourt County, Virginia under Captain John Bowles in 1780, under Captain John McCoy in 1781 and was discharged by Captain Peter Hull in 1783. He lived in Greenbrier County in the 1780's, moved to Harrison County circa 1790 and married Sarah Ratcliff in 1794. They resided on Hacker's Creek, Lewis County (and later Roane) before removing to Washington County, Ohio about 1834 (maybe should be 1824?).
A pension for military service was granted 16 May 1833 but was later revoked. John was an Indian spy in what is now West Virginia before his marriage and was burned out by the Indians on the frontier in 1792 (perhaps in the same series of intrusions that saw his brother, Benjamin, killed by Big Indian and Little Indian on the Elk and Holly Rivers of Braxton/Webster Counties).

Page 42: 13. Sudna Elizabeth (16) Carpenter was born about 1765, married Samuel Tanner on November 28, 1791 and died after 1850. Sudna's brother, Thomas, was the bondsman for this marriage in Harrison County, Virginia. Samuel Tanner was a veteran of the Revolutionary War (Jesse (16) Carpenter was one of his testators when Sam made his pension application, but didn't receive any land grant or pension (page 43) because he had not served long enough). These Tanners, along with a man named Jonathan Wolfe and a boy called "Tate", are credited with being the founders of Spencer, seat of Roane County, West Virginia. They are variously said to have lived in Harrison, Wood, Jackson and Roane Counties. Aside from a brief stay in Gallia County, Ohio near her brother, Jesse, they never moved, but the counties did!

CHILDREN: Page 52-54: Children of Sudna Elizabeth (16) Carpenter, of Solomon (15), of Joseph (14):

1. William Tanner was born about 1790. No further information.
2. Jesse "Ike" Tanner was born circa 1795, married 1st Mary "Polly" Carpenter 14 August 1820 in Mason County (Mary was a daughter of Jesse and Sarah Jane Riffe Carpenter) and 2nd Judith Carpenter (Judy was a daughter of Jeremiah and Elizabeth Hamm Carpenter) circa 1837. All of Jesse and Judith Carpenter Tanner's children 1837-1846 listed their parents as Jesse and Judy Tanner when they married. Judy died 10 October 1859 and is reportedly buried in the "Old Tanner Cemetery" on Craig Ridge. Mary Carpenter Tanner died in childbirth with her last child, William, and is supposedly buried in the same graveyard. Jesse Tanner married 3rd Lucinda Raines 11 February 1860 and died 26 March 1885. Lucinda was a daughter of Uriah and Massie (Hughes) Gandee, a widow of Abraham Raines and a first cousin, but once removed, to Jesse Tanner through the Hughes family. They are buried in the Memorial Gardens Cemetery at Spencer, West Virginia. Jesse and Lucinda's (Page 52) children, 1862-1872, all listed their parents as Jesse and Lucy or Lucinda when they married. Parental listings offer substantial proof of whom Jesse Tanner married and when he married them.
3. Joseph Tanner married Nancy Miller 17 August 1821 in Mason County, Virginia- now West Virginia. Joseph and Jesse Tanners' marriage records are found in Point Pleasant (Reverend Benjamin Wright's original records may be inspected in Cottageville), West Virginia. This Nancy Miller has not been linked with the pioneers, Samuel and/or Joshua Miller, and remains unidentified as far as family is concerned.

4. James Tanner was born circa 1800 and married Nancy (surname unknown).

5. Elijah Tanner was born about 1802 and married Marian King 29 August 1833. (This woman's name is also found as Mary A. and Mary Ann.)

6. Mary Tanner was born around 1810. No further information.

7. Elizabeth Tanner was born circa 1812 and married Benjamin Wright.

8. Louise Tanner married Basil Miller. No further information.

9.There was at least one other child in this family- perhaps an ?Artimethia?

Samuel Tanner, Sudna Elizabeth Carpenter, Jonathan Wolfe, and a boy called "Tate" were supposedly the first settlers in what is now Spencer, West Virginia in 1812 (Jesse Carpenter's oldest son, Thomas, was fifteen years old at that time and was nicknamed "Tater"). They had heard very enticing stories about the area and its wonderful spring from Tanner's brothers-in-law, Jesse Hughes and Jesse Carpenter, and had decided to sojourn there to see what it was like and perhaps settle.

It seemed to be an ideal place to homestead. There was a huge overhanging rock shelf (variously called "the Cliffs", "Carpenter's Cave" et cetera), the beautiful spring, a nearby creek (Tanner's Run) and abundant game in the surrounding forest.

There were even gigantic sugar trees in the "bottoms" for maple syrup in March if things went well. Logs were cut and stood on end between ground and ceiling to form the outside wall and brush was piled against it for insulation and to shed water. Other logs were split to make "puncheon" table and chairs, dry leaves were piled in the corners to serve as beds and a fire pit made so that most of the smoke would go out through a crevice in the roof. A small field had been cleared and enough corn planted to see them through the winter (squash and "lazy wife" beans were interspersed with the "eight rows white" corn to provide other preservable foodstuff).

A sturdy cabin was built where the Roane County courthouse now stands the following spring and Elizabeth, supposedly the Tanners" first child, was born. Other Carpenters and Tanners as well as Runnions and Millers inhabited the region shortly (page 53) thereafter. It would be unusual to find many people in Roane County, even today, who are not related in some way to at least one of these old founding families.

The cliffs are still there on the campus of old Spencer High School but are no more than a shadow of their original selves. Because of the danger to the children, much of the shelf was broken off deliberately. There is a movement afoot to preserve them. In their "heyday" the cave consisted of two rooms, side by side with a partition of rock in between. The larger room must have been some fifteen feet deep and thirty feet long with an eight foot ceiling, The smaller room was just as deep but perhaps only half as long and served as a stable for livestock, especially the family's milk cow.

John Greathouse Sr. appeared near Evans, WV about 17 Sep 1806 when he announced his intentions to marry Sarah McDade in a marriage bond. It is almost like he walked out of of cloud leaving no trace to where he was residing before arrived at Evans, WV. Based on records he had the opportunity to state his age on between 1810 and 1866, he appears to have been born between March 1778 and 1782. If he was born in March 1778, then he was conceived about 9 months prior in June 1777, which would suggest his father was alive in June 1777, but perhaps not alive when he was born about March 1778. The only record which supports a March 1778 birth would be his headstone with inscription given by his son Edward Greathouse who ordered the headstone from a stone cutter in Ravenswood. I am thinking that Edward Greathouse may have become aware that his father was somewhat older than his father related to a Justice of the Peace, age 74 in 1856, so born about 1782.

There is some interesting individuals named in the household of John & Sarah McDade Greathouse as farm laborers in the 1850 census, Mordecai Stackhouse and Lewis Stackhouse. Mordecai was the son of Rohanah Greathouse who married John Stackhouse in Harrison County, VA in 1798. Lewis, son of Aaron Stackhouse was a grandson of Rohanah Greathouse Stackhouse.

I think that Rohanah Greathouse Stackhouse, Mordecai Stackhouse and Lewis Stackhouse knew what relationship John Greathouse Sr. was to them, but we don't.

If John Greathouse Sr. was born about March 1778, then there are two Greathouse males who died between 27 Sep 1777 and March 1778, who could have been the father of John Greathouse Sr.. Jacob Greathouse was killed during the Indian ambush of Cpt. William Foreman's Company on 27 Sep 1777. Daniel Greathouse was deceased by March 1778, when his brother John Greathouse was appointed administrator of the estate of Daniel Greathouse deceased.

Daniel Greathouse can be excluded from candidates who could have been the father of John Greathouse Sr. based on:

Allan W. Eckert was the first to conclude that Daniel Greathouse and Jacob Greathouse were brothers. I really hate to burst the bubble for the rest of the Greathouses who want to believe this, but it just is not so. I would grant that they were probably first cousins.

Hi John,
The 1796 marriage record for Jesse Carpenter (RIN 5345) names his bride as Jenny Rife, and there is no record identifying her as Sarah Jane even though many internet trees state that. Her surname was not Wright -- the Rev. John Alderson, who married them, was a literate man, and he spelled Wright correctly in his list of marriages that he performed. Rife was later spelled Riffe -- it was pronounced "riffy" not "ryte."
The Jesse Carpenter who married in 1814 to Margaret Cottrell did not marry in 1796 to Jenny Wright -- he would have been only 11 years old at that time.

Both Jesses were too young to have served in the Revolutionary War. There are 4 Jesse Carpenters with War of 1812 service in Virginia or Ohio. One was the Jesse Carpenter born c1785 who married Margaret, the other three were from other places in Virginia.
The Van Ripper family tree information about the Carpenters is chock full of errors, for example, listing Amos Carpenter who was born 14 Feb 1754 in VA as born in "Lebanon, New London, Connecticut, USA." They cite two references, (1) U.S. and International Marriage Records, 1560-1900 which are in large part unverified user-contributed say-so information that cannot be accepted at face value; and (2) unverified user-contributed Ancestry Family Trees that are no longer available -- and probably just as well because they most likely cited other Ancestry Family Trees none of which were based on original sources. The many obvious errors make it clear that they have been indiscriminately copying and conflating others' work.
Terry

Older notes follow.

NOTE:
He married twice. First wife's name is unknown, it may have been Polly.
He served as an Indian spy during the Revolution, under Major William Lowther and in Col. Joseph Crockett's Regiment. This regiment was called Illinois as it was under George Rogers Clark which went to Ohio country to subdue the Indians at at Vincennes. These soldiers protected the Continental Army from having to fight on two fronts. IE the Indians in the west and the British in the east. Jesse also served in the War of 1812.
Braxton county, Virginia is now in West Virginia.

NOTE:
I have never seen anything that would suggest that this line of Carpenters originated in nor ended up in Georgia, especially with John F. Carpenter's Estate being settled in Cabell County, (W) VA. Most research leads into southern VA where John F. and Polly Wheeler Carpenter have land records in Greenbrier Co., VA.

The close proximity of the Carpenters in Roane/Jackson Co., (W)VA would suggest that there might be a connection with John F. Carpenter. Lewisburg, WV also puts John F. Carpenter and wife Polly, in the neighborhood of Joseph Carpenter, known to live on Potts Creek in Alleghany Co. VA. For many Carpenter researchers, they remain elusive. There is always a puzzle piece missing. Included here are notes I have collected over the years from various places and from several researchers:

RESEARCH INFORMATION:
Karen;
After the RevWar started, the United States started the Personal Property Tax system that replaced the Tithables used by the Colonies.? In Virginia it started in 1782.? These are on microfilms and available through LDS/Morman Family History Centers.? Although some snippits (extracted for particular families) are on line, I know of no complete sets online.

==========

In November of 1781, the Virginia legislature enacted the first law to collect taxes on land and personal property. It can found in Hening's Statutes at Large, Vol. X, p. 500-517.

With respect to personal property, the act directed the following:

1. Every free male person over age 21, ten shillings (this included free blacks)
2. all slaves, ten shillings
3. each horse, mare, colt and mule, two shillings
4. cattle, 3 pence per head
5. Each wheel of a coach, chariot, paheton, chaise or stage wagon, riding carriages, 5 shillings per wheel
6. Billiard tables, 50 Pounds each (obviously a true luxury)
7. Ordinary licenses, 5 pounds

Contrary to popular myth, the tax collector did not visit each household individually to assess the contents. This system carried over from the colonial times (and in to the modern day), whereby the person responsible for paying the tax turned in his list to the local tax commissioner. One key component of this particular act was the anyone owning slaves was also to supply the tax commissioner with the names of the slaves in his possession. The 1782 list is the only list which universally lists the slaves by name.

In the case of absentee owners, the overseer of the plantation was designated as the agent and was responsible for turning in the list of taxable property.

The penalty for concealing taxable property was 500 pounds of tobacco.
This Act is quite lengthy and this is only a thumbnail version of it.
It was amended many times over the years, and the items that were taxable continued to change, and the age of white male tithables was sometimes age 16, not age 21.

Now, it has has also been suggested that all white males over 21 were automatically listed as a person chargable with a tax and ergo, when their names first appear on a tax list, it means they were 21 years old THAT YEAR. This is not the case. It is more common that a man first appears on the tax list as "the person chargable with the tax" when he is first married and heading his own household. If that man were, say 25 years old, and living in his father's household, he would be among the tithes of the father's household. Unless of course the father insisted he pay his own head tax. I don't think we can say there is a "rule" about this. We are lucky when we find a tax lists that lists all of the white male tithes on the list under one house hold.

Although as John wrote there can be geographic patterns in the tithable and tax lists, what I've found in Hening's Statutes and in Court records say the individual tax payer (or in some cases an overseer for his employer) was required to turn in his/her list to the appropriate official and was not visited door to door.

The Library of Virginia's article about Colonial Tithables describes how the various laws required people to turn in their list of tithables to the justice or district captain or commissioner by a certain time, then they in turn had to submit their lists to the next higher authority by a deadline, etc.

See:

I'd like to address something that is often a mistaken assumption.
That is that tax commissioners went door to door to assess people's land and, more specifically, their personal property holdings.

This is not the case. People were responsible for turning in their own list of taxable property. Prior to the revolution, this would be their tithe lists. Starting in 1782, this would be both tithables (white males over 16, slaves, horses, cows--the lists change from time to time as to what was taxable.)

The tax man did not go personally inspect each house hold. Just as today, you are responsible for reporting your taxable property (a car, a boat, a plane, a tractor, etc.)

Since most of these lists are arranged by first letter of the last name (some of the earlier ones are simply in the order that the lists were turned in), the best clue (and it's only a clue) is to be careful to note on which day the tax commissioner received the information. This can be quite helpful when working with several people of the same last name. If a certain group of men are consistently turning in their reports on the same day (and therefore listed as one consecutive group) and a few others of the last name are consistently not among that group, this can be helpful in sorting out family relationships.

But, unlike the census taker, the tax man did not go door to door. There are many, many court records both colonial and post colonial, where people were fined for turning in their lists. In colonial times, a nosy neighbor could turn you in for under reporting your full list of tithables.

While legally any white male over 16 was tithable, it was also the custom to put that event off for a couple of years. Still, one can often determine a very idea of a birth year of such a white male when he first shows up on the tithe list. However, sometimes he will just show up as an additional tithe in his father's household until he sets up his own household, which of course would be at marriage. Therefore, these lists can also be a useful clue in determining a year of marriage when no marriage records exist.

Beginning in 1782, the old quit rent system for taxing land was replaced by the land tax. This has a long history of how it was developed (involving many disputes between the various colonies on how to pay for war debts and the discrepency in land values from state to state) but for purposes of genealogical research, that is not very important.

The 1782 list will give owners name, acreage, assessed value and tax due. From 1783-1787, the list consist only of "alterations", that is, transfers from one party to another.

Have you been unable to figure out how land got to one owner from another? This is your guide to finding out. It has come in as the only solution to an inheritance or death or unrecorded deed many a time.

These are generally not alphabetical. To the extent they are it will be by the former owner, not the new owner. Thus, you must go through each list carefully. You will want to compare amounts of acreage to be certain.

A short cut to doing this is that if the 1788 list shows the same property to the same owner as in 1782, no change had been made and you can roll merrily along. If, however, the person taxed in 1782 is not taxed in 1788, you'll need to go through the alterations lists from 1783 to 1787.

However, for any period after 1788 when you cannot find a deed of transfer, or a will, some lists still give the alterations at the end of each list. Not always, but often. You will always want to check the end of any tax list--personal property or land--for such notes. In many cases, this might lead you to a record that is not indexed under the names you are seeking (especially in cases where commissioners were charged with selling a deceased land, and the case of unrecorded deeds, or simple inheritances.)

What I wrote below deserves some clarification. On the personal property tax lists, if a man is listed but shows "0" white tithes, you can be nearly certain he is living somewhere else--either in another district within the same county or in another county altogether.

Land tax lists are sometimes a bit more helpful, in later years. Many lists will begin to state where the residence of the person being taxes is, if not tin he same locale.

One last note, it is often stated by many researchers that the tax lists for 1808 in Virginia are missing. They are not missing. They never existed. The General Assembly that year declared that there were sufficient revenues in the public coffers to forego a tax in that year. That is probably the first and only time in history that has ever happened.

They did not usually have to travel to the court house. They travelled to the home of the tax commissioner for their district. The first few years of Culpeper County are divided into at least 13 separate districts (if memory serves me correctly)--which makes it quite a chore to find the right

John Carpenter, born c1774-1780. He resided in Lincoln Co. GA in 1820, died probably c1820s. Children from the 1820 census: 1. Son Carpenter, born c1794-1804 -- ?Thomas Carpenter of Coweta Co. GA. 2. Son Carpenter, born c1802-1804 -- ?Zachariah Carpenter. Note: instead of two sons, this enumeration could have been for one son enumerated twice due to the way the census was set up. There may be other sons and daughters, but that is unclear at this time. _____ This is the best I have at present, but am hoping to continue the effort and better define the descendants. If you find anyone in GA doing research on these families who could get us some info from the archives, I'd love to hear from them. Regards, Terry

1726. Mary Carpenter

MARRIAGE: m. 11May1792: Mary Carpenter married Alexander Boyle, son of John Boyle. John's daughter, Ann, later married Zenith Carpenter on 23 Mar 1793. These are neighbors and have close ties in land transactions.

E-MAIL: Wed, 6 Jun 2001 From: "Timothy Bell"
Thank you for letting me know about the cd set. My ancestor Alexander Boyle, son of Major John Boyle and Jane Black Boyle, married Mary Carpenter, according to research on the internet she was the daughter of Zophar Carpenter. Do you know if this is correct? If it is I will order the cd set right away. Please let me know.
Sincerely, Lavinia Bell.

1728. Leah Carpenter

MARRIAGE: 20 Nov 1793: Leah Carpenter married Thomas Tinsley. Zenith Carpenter is the bondsman. Later Rufus Carpenter gives proof of age for Levisa Tinsley in her marriage to a Hugh Ross. Levisa is most likely the daughter of Leah and Thomas. Leah and Thomas are completely lost from the scene after their marriage. There was an early Thomas Tinsley who was a minister and likewise was heard of no more. Could have been the same as preachers moved about (NO PROOF).

1729. Rachel Carpenter

MARRIAGE: 13 Dec 1799: Rachel Carpenter married Stephen McCollum. There is less convincing evidence for Rachel as a daughter, but the marriage took place in the newly formed Garrard Co. and there were no other Carpenters except Zophar and his family. Certainly, none of these ladies would have been on the frontier without family. Therefore, it looks like Zophar had this one for a daughter also. There is a McCollum connection to the Carpenters through the Reed/Reid family. In 1808, John Reed either made his will and / or it was proved on the same date or in the same year. The court papers do not say when proved. In his will are sons, John and Andrew; a daughter Rachel, who in the same year married Rufus Carpenter, son of Zophar. The will also put to Rufus' charge, the care and education of a David McCollum. This same David later married a Polly Gentry in neighboring Lincoln Co. He later moved to Missouri at about the same time Zophar's youngest son Robert went west. David took as his second wife, Nancy Carpenter, daughter of Robert. An 1889 short biography of David McCollum reports that, "His father, his grandfather, and his great-grandfather were all named Davy;" that he was born in Garrard Co., Ky., Jan 22, 1802. His mother was Polly Reed. This Polly had to be a sister to Rachel who married Rufus Carpenter and probably died in child birth or shortly after David was born. Knowing that Rachel, his daughter was to be married or was already married to Rufus, was incentive and agreeable to all that David would be in good hands. At least the family ties continued. As to how close Stephen, husband of Rachel Carpenter McCollum was to the other McCollums is uncertain. Stephens bond was signed by a Daniel McCollum. Perhaps he was a brother to David, the father of young David who was put in the care of Rufus. As with the Tinsleys, there is no further knowledge of Rachel and Stephen.

MISC:
Mason and Jackson Counties of Virginia became part of WV in 1862.
Mason County was created in 1804 from Kanawha County.
Jackson County was created in 1831 from Kanawha, Mason and Wood.

NOTE:
Joseph (18) Carpenter was born about 1820, died after 1880 and married Sarah Runnion 29 March 1840 (She was born in May of 1826 and died around 1863, daughter of Henry and Sarah (Staats) (King) Runnion).

COMMENT: There is a Sarah listed as wife to Joseph in the 1870 and 1880 US Census records. See below. How could she have died around 1863? Is there another unknown marriage to another Sarah?

PARENTS:
Jesse Carpenter b. abt 1762 VA - d. aft 1825 OH?
Sarah Jane "Jenny" Riffe b. abt 1776 Va - d. ? ?
These parents supplied by Terry Lee Carpenter.

PARENTS: challenged
Thomas Carpenter b. abt 1796 VA (later the part which became WV) and not OH - d. abt 1882 Roane County, WV.
Sarah E. Wright b. abt 1796/1804 VA - d. abt Jul 1872 OH or VA.
PARENT CONNECTION IS CHALLENGED.
There are a few people who confuse this Joseph with a Joseph Carpenter b. Aug 1842 of Calhoon County, WV who d. abt 1882 or 27 Mar 1881 per a private tree.
They have parents (likely in error) listed as:
Thomas Carpenter 1796-1882
Sarah Wright 1804-1872
Most have the spouse listed as:
Mary "Polly" Lowe 1848-1882
Some attach another spouse:
Sarah Wright 1796 or 1804 - 1872 attached in error.
These lines all cite Ancestry Family Trees as their sources.

BIRTH:
Claimed as b. 1820 in Mason County, however no documentation or proof given other than un-documented internet genealogies. More likely born in VA and the area now called WV.

DEATH: No death date confirmed!
Joseph's death date is clearly before 1900 and after the 1880 US Census.
There are a few people who confuse this Joseph with a Joseph Carpenter b. Aug 1842 of Calhoon County, WV who d. abt 1882 or 27 Mar 1881 per a private tree. See PARENTS Above.

1679. Jenny Riffe

NAME: Riffe or Rife. She husband's notes.
AKA: Jenny Rite (Wright?). <--- merged spousal name!?
Father is believed to be Joseph. However he may have been an uncle.

NOTE: This was Sarah Jane Riffe, now known as "Jenny Rife", is NOT Jenny Wright who married Jesse Carpenter-28439. Different people. JRC

COMMENT:
The 1796 marriage record for Jesse Carpenter names his bride as Jenny Rife, and there is no record identifying her as Sarah Jane even though many internet trees state that. Her surname was not Wright -- the Rev. John Alderson, who married them, was a literate man, and he spelled Wright correctly in his list of marriages that he performed. Rife was later spelled Riffe -- it was pronounced "riffy" not "ryte."

Jesse Carpenter

NOTE:
Jesse is identified in a published recollection as a brother of Jeremiah Carpenter, who is a proved son of Solomon Carpenter based on a county court record. However, due to the questioned reliability of the author of the recollection, it's best to annotate him as "parentage not proven."
[An]other Jesse was born c1785 (RIN 28439), and is easily separated from this Jesse, but they were merged in online "trees" that have been copied with no analysis being applied and replicated until they make up the majority of the hits in an Ancestry.com search ... Terry Lee Carpenter

Hi John,
The 1796 marriage record for Jesse Carpenter names his bride as Jenny Rife, and there is no record identifying her as Sarah Jane even though many internet trees state that. Her surname was not Wright -- the Rev. John Alderson, who married them, was a literate man, and he spelled Wright correctly in his list of marriages that he performed. Rife was later spelled Riffe -- it was pronounced "riffy" not "ryte."
The Jesse Carpenter who married in 1814 to Margaret Cottrell did not marry in 1796 to Jenny Wright -- he would have been only 11 years old at that time.
Both Jesses were too young to have served in the Revolutionary War. There are 4 Jesse Carpenters with War of 1812 service in Virginia or Ohio. One was the Jesse Carpenter born c1785 who married Margaret, the other three were from other places in Virginia.
The Van Ripper family tree information about the Carpenters is chock full of errors, for example, listing Amos Carpenter who was born 14 Feb 1754 in VA as born in "Lebanon, New London, Connecticut, USA." They cite two references, (1) U.S. and International Marriage Records, 1560-1900 which are in large part unverified user-contributed say-so information that cannot be accepted at face value; and (2) unverified user-contributed Ancestry Family Trees that are no longer available -- and probably just as well because they most likely cited other Ancestry Family Trees none of which were based on original sources. The many obvious errors make it clear that they have been indiscriminately copying and conflating others' work.

Page 41: 6. Jesse (16) Carpenter was born about 1762, married Sarah Jane "Jenny" Rife or Riffe on May 3, 1796 and moved to Gallia County, Ohio immediately thereafter.
He served in the War of 1812 and received a pension (later revoked) for service in the Revolutionary War under a Captain Trunk. Some researchers believe (page 42) that Jesse was twice married and that Sarah Jane was his second wife. Jenny Rite (Wright?) was supposedly his first wife. Jesse's marriage is yet to be found on any original list by John Alderson, the widely travelled itinerant minister who supposedly celebrated the rites of matrimony (Other Carpenter marriages are). Old English script sometimes seems to defy deciphering and transliterations are very common. Perhaps this is a "second hand reading". "Jenny" is the usual nickname for Jane. People are often found with first, middle or nickname in different censuses. Any legitimate proof of either marriage, particularly a second one, would quickly eliminate the controversy.

NOTE: Is Jesse short for Nathan?

1680. Joseph Carpenter

1. Joseph (17) Carpenter was born about 1797 and married, possibly, Acenith Romine in Lewis County 22 March 1820. He and his brother, Samuel, left what is now the Harper District of Roane County in the 1830's and were lost track of, but he married second, Mahala A. Harper 23 July 1838 in Washington County, Ohio and was residing there in 1850. Some Carpenter researchers say that this Joseph was a son of Jeremiah and that he died in a logging accident near Addison (Webster Springs) shortly after his marriage to Acenith Romine; but this is, obviously, incorrect.
CHILDREN: Minerva may be a child of his first marriage. One record indicates he had some 13 children but only have been identified so far.

BOOK: See page 52 (for notes) of the Mowrey 1997 book. See book information below:

BY TERRY LEE CARPENTER AND PAUL THOMAS MOWREY.
PRO BONO PUBLICO - PRIVATELY PUBLISHED, DOVER, OHIO, 1997.
BY PAUL THOMAS MOWREY.
PAGE 52: 2. Jesse "Ike" Tanner was born circa 1795, married 1st Mary "Polly" Carpenter 14 August 1820 in Mason County (Mary was a daughter of Jesse and Sarah Jane Riffe Carpenter) and 2nd Judith Carpenter (Judy was a daughter of Jeremiah and Elizabeth Hamm Carpenter) circa 1837. All of Jesse and Judith Carpenter Tanner's children 1837-1846 listed their parents as Jesse and Judy Tanner when they married. Judy died 10 October 1859 and is reportedly buried in the "Old Tanner Cemetery" on Craig Ridge. Mary Carpenter Tanner died in childbirth with her last child, William, and is supposedly buried in the same graveyard. Jesse Tanner married 3rd Lucinda Raines 11 February 1860 and died 26 March 1885. Lucinda was a daughter of Uriah and Massie (Hughes) Gandee, a widow of Abraham Raines and a first cousin, but once removed, to Jesse Tanner through the Hughes family. They are buried in the Memorial Gardens Cemetery at Spencer, West Virginia. Jesse and Lucinda's (Page 52) children, 1862-1872, all listed their parents as Jesse and Lucy or Lucinda when they married. Parental listings offer substantial proof of whom Jesse Tanner married and when he married them.

NOTE: Jesse "Buffalo" TANNER Sr. AND Jesse "Ike" TANNER may or may not be the same person. I think maybe, but there is enough debate to allow two until further details come forth.

Judith "Polly" Carpenter

NAME: Judith was known as Polly, but her name is often spellt as Judy or Judah instead of Judith. See page 48 of the Mowrey 1997 book:
Per page 48: 11. Judith (17) Carpenter was born around 1809, married Jesse "Ike" Tanner circa 1837 and died 10 October 1859 (Jesse reported her death in Roane County. Other records have her death in Braxton county, VA.
She was fifty years old and the daughter of J. and Elizabeth (Hamm) Carpenter of Braxton (page 49) County. She and Jesse's first wife, Mary Carpenter (daughter of Jesse and Sarah Jane Riffe Carpenter) are probably buried in the old Tanner Cemetery on Craig Ridge.

MARRIAGES need clarification. Children conflicts. Could there be 2 Mary Carpenters?

DEATH:
See line 41 Tanner, Judah death Oct 10, 1839 Roane County VA. Died of consumption age 50.
On the next page it lists her parents J & Elizabeth Carpenter of Braxton County, VA.
Jesse Tanner is the spouse and reporter of death. He is listed as the husband of the deceased. See image at:

Lucinda "Gandee" Raines

LUCINDA WAS ABT 31 YRS YOUNGER TAN JESSE. LIVED IN ROANE CO WVA
IN CENSUS: 1860,70,80. THEIR LOG HOUSE BUILT BY JESSE WAS LOCATED ON THEIR LARGE FARM WHICH IS NOW KNOWN AS THE ALVOID SECTION OF SPENCER, WVA. THE CABIN SAT ON A KNOLL ACROSS FROM THE RAYMOND CARPER HOUSE NOW STANDS.

SPOUSE: Jesse "Ike" or Jesse "Buffalo" Tanner? The same person?

It is interesting to note that in the Mowrey book concerning this marriage, there are no birth dates given for any of the children. This is in variance with all other families which at least show a year of birth.

3834. Minter Tanner

Minter Jackson Tanner was born 24 August 1862, died 3 June 1951 and married 1 March 1887 Angeline Wine (daughter of Richard W. and Nancy (Miller) Wine) and 2nd 3 April 1912 Ada Mae Perrill.

Confusion agin occurs in this marriage. The Mowrey book shows this marriage with 5 children, as entered in this record, but, the first birth, Richard DeWitt is in 1914. It is unlikely that Minter and Angeline were married in 1887, and had no children untill 1914! However, Minter may have gone away for that length of time, or whatever?

Angeline Wine

Angeline Wine was born around 1865 and married Minter J. Tanner 1 March 1887.
Minter was a son of Jesse and Lucinda (Gandee) Raines Tanner.

3835. Rosa Tanner

Rosa Tanner was born in July of 1866 and married Albert "Abe" Goff circa 1883, 2nd 3 March 1892 Augustus Droddy and 3rd Marshall e.Greathouse.

3836. Zelpha Mary Tanner

Zilpha Molly Tanner was born circa 1868, died 1937 and married Joe Smith.
In 1870 census she is called Zelpha age 2 yrs. b. Va.
In 1880 census she is called Mary age 12 b. Va.

1687. Mathias Carpenter

Mathias' father is believed to be Samuel Carpenter (1742) son of Joseph. Not proven.
Others believe that his father was Mathias Zimmerman. Not proven.
Another believes that his father was John Zimmerman or John Mathis Zimmerman. Not proven.
I have added what I have found in census and FaG recently below. This seems to support more of the later, at least genetically. JRC

Mathias Carpenter (1750/55) and Elizabeth Miller of Surry, Wilkes and Ashe Co, NC
martygrant.com
I (Marty Grant) am a 6th Great Grandson of Mathias Carpenter and Elizabeth Miller.

Special thanks to Danny Miller, Paul Phipps, Evelyn Rice Tharp and many others for data shared on this family.

Mathias Zimmerman was born on December 2nd, in some year between 1750 and 1755. The years are based on his census records, and the date based on an old, now totally eroded tombstone. In the Miller (or Welch) Cemetery in Ashe Co, NC, there are several old tombstones, including one for "M. Carpenter" that listed his birth date and death date as Dec 2 1777 - Oct 17 1835. We know the death date is correct, so presumably the birth date was correct, at least the month and day. The "1777" was either a mistake by the carver, or by the person transcribing it. I visited this cemetery a few years ago, and found numerous old stones, that once had writing on them, but were now totally illegible. I did not find one with Mathias' name on it, at least not where

I could read it. I suppose that when they were still legible, someone wrote down the dates. However, either they read the birth year wrong, or it was wrong on the stone. Many have incorrectly assumed that this stone was for a Mathias "Jr" since the birth year was so much more recent than our Mathias. However, there is no basis for such an assumption, and no records indicating there was a Mathias "Jr". The tombstone information was from the "Wade Eller Collection".

My way of designating Mathias' birth date is as 2 Dec 1750/1755. He was most likely born in Pennsylvania, though in what county, I could not even guess. There were literally hundreds, if not thousands of Germanic immigrants to PA in the 1700's named "Zimmerman" or some variation thereof (i.e. Simmerman, Shimmerman, etc), and unfortunately, "Mathias" was a common name among them. If I had to guess, I would say he was born in either Lancaster, Bucks, Berks or York County, PA. I could be wrong about all four of those though. It is also possible that he was born in some other state, or perhaps he himself was an immigrant to America.

In many years of research, neither I, nor my many fellow Carpenter researchers, have been able to identify Mathias' parents, nor even find a strong suspect. For some reason, several researchers show Mathias as a son of another Mathias, but I have not found the slightest proof of this.

John, Here is a copy of some information written by my great grandfather. It is pretty interesting, but I doubt Mathias is the son of Samuel since Mathias came from Holland according to this. Very truly yours, Joann Stewart.
HISTORICAL SKETCHES OF
THE CARPENTER AND BURTON FAMILIES
BY DAVID RILEY CARPENTER, NEWTON, KANSAS
MATHIAS CARPENTER AND TWO BROTHERS COME FROM HOLLAND AND SETTLED IN NORTH CAROLINA ABOUT THE LATTER PART OF THE 18TH CENTURY. TWO OF THESE BROTHERS WENT SOUTH AND MATHIAS REMAINED IN NORTH CAROLIA AND BECAME A RICH SLAVEHOLDER.
MATHIAS HAD THREE CHILDREN, ONE GIRL AND TWO BOYS. ONE BOY WAS ACCIDENTALLY KILLED WHEN GROWN, THE OTHER, DAVID CARPENTER IS THE GRANDFATHER OF THIS THE OLDEST GENERATION OF CARPENTERS LIVING, AND JACOB CARPENTER HIS SECOND CHILD AND FIRST SON IS THE FATHER OF THIS CARPENTER FAMILY.
MATHIAS CARPENTER, THE SLAVEHOLDER, DIVIDED HIS SLAVES BETWEEN HIS TWO CHILDREN, AND DAVID CARPENTER WAS A SLAVEHOLDER JUST LONG ENOUGH TO WRITE EACH ONE'S DISCHARGE OR RELEASE FROM SLAVERY, AND THAT RELEASE WAS PERMANENT.
THIS DAVID CARPENTER, AND HIS WIFE CATHARINE MAY REARED TEN CHILDREN, FIVE BOYS AND FIVE GIRLS. ABOUT THE YEAR 1833, THE YEAR THAT ALL THE STARS FELL, HE AND HIS FAMILY MOVED TO MONROE COUNTY, INDIANA AND SETTLED NEAR THE LITTLE VILLAGE OF STAMFORD. HERE HE LIVED TILL ABOUT THE YEAR 1870. WHEN HE WENT TO MISSOURI FOR A FEW YEARS, HE HAD ACCUMULATED CONSIDERABLE PROPERTY, AND WAS ABLE TO GIVE EACH OF HIS CHILDREN FORTY ACRES OF LAND. MEANTIME HE HAD VOLUNTERED AS A SOLDIER IN THE MEXICO WAR.(PER: HELEN JONES ADAMS, "I REMEMBER SEEING THE RIFLE DAVID CARRIED HANGING OVER THE DOORWAY OF GRANDAD'S PLACE IN NEW MEXICO. WHAT HAPPENED TO IT, I DO NOT KNOW". MEXICAN WAR 1846-1847- GENERAL SCOTT TOOK MEXICO CITY SEPTEMBER 14, 1847. TREATY OF GUADALUPE HIDALGO FEBRUARY 2, 1848.) BUT ON HIS WAY ACROSS THE GULF OF MEXICO TO THE WAR ZONE, HIS COMMAND WAS MET BY THE RETURNING, CONQUERING ARMY FROM MEXICO. HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE METHODIST CHURCH AND AT ONE TIME A METHODIST CLASS LEADER.
CATHARINE (MAY) CARPENTER, LIVED TO BE ABOUT 70 YEARS OLD AND DAVID CARPENTER LIVED TO BE 97 YEARS OLD. THEY WERE BOTH BURIED IN THE GREEN COUNTY METHODIST CHURCH YARD, OR GRAVEYARD, ONE MILE WEST OF THE VILLAGE OF STAMFORD, INDIANA. SEVERAL OTHERS OF THE CARPENTER FAMILY WERE BURIED

THERE.
JACOB CARPENTER, THE FATHER OF THIS OLDEST GENERATION OF CARPENTERS, WAS BORN IN NORTH CAROLINA, MAY 16.1818, AND HIS WIFE, ELIZABETH BURTON WAS BORN IN NORTH CAROLINA DECEMBER 12, 1824. THEY WERE UNITED IN MARRIAGE MARCH 16, 1843, NEAR ORLEANS, INDIANA. AFTER LIVING HERE AND THERE FOR A TIME THEY SETTLED ON A LITTLE FARM IN MONRO COUNTY, NEAR THE VILLAGE OF STAMFORD, INDIANA IN THE YEAR 1855. HERE THEY REARED THE LAST HALF OF THEIR FAMILY OF 14, 9 GIRLS AND FIVE BOYS.
IN THE SPRING OF 1871 THEY MOVED TO HARRISON COUNTY, MISSOURI, AND IN 1874 THEY MOVED TO ADAMS COUNTY, NEBRASKA AND SETTLED NEAR HASTINGS. HERE THEY CELEBRATED THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING, MARCH 16, 1893 WHEN TWELVE CHILDREN SAT DOWN WITH THEM AT THE DINNER TABLE. IN 1894 THEY SETTLED ON A LITTLE FARM ONE MILE EAST OF THE TOWN OF FRANKLIN. JACOB DIED MARCH 14, 1913, AT THE AGE OF 97 (95), LACKING TWO MONTHS. ELIZABETH DIED APRIL 6, 1905. THEIR REMAINS LIE SIDE BY SIDE IN THE GREENWOOD CEMETARY NEAR FRANKLIN, NEBRASKA. CARPENTER ON A FARM NEAR POWELL, WYOMING. (WE DON'T KNOW WHEN THIS WAS WRITTEN, PROBABLY BETWEEN 1939 AND 1940 SOMETHING. David Riley Carpenter died April 21, 1944.)
RECAPITULATION:
AT THE TIME OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION A BAND OF MURDEROUS TORIES WENT THROUGH THE COUNTRY KILLING ALL WHO WERE IN SYMPATHY WITH THE COLONIES, AND WHEN THEY CAME TO THE HOME OF MATHIAS CARPENTER, HE WAS SICK IN BED, SO TWO OF THEIR Number TOOK HIM OUT OF THE BED AND STRETCHED HIM ACROSS THE OPEN DOOR, WHILE A THRID STOOD OUTSIDE AND SHOT AT HIM. AT THE CRACK OF THE GUN THE TWO MEN LET THEIR VICTIM FALL TO THE FLOOR, SUPPOSING HIM TO BE DEAD. HE WAS NOT STRUCK BY THE BALL AND WHEN THE TORIES WERE GONE HE GOT BACK IN BED. WHEN THE TORIES HAD MADE THEIR ROUNDS THEY RETURNED BY WAY OF THIS HOUSE AND STOPPED AND CONSULTED WHETHER THEY SHOUD GO IN AND SEE IF THEIR VICTIM WAS STILL ALIVE, BUT FINALLY DECIDED HE WAS DEAD ENOUGH, SO THEY WENT ON.
JOHN PLEASANT BURTON WAS A REVOLUTION SOLDIER, A VOLUNTEER FROM VIRGINIA. HE DIED IN INDIANA, AND WAS BURIED IN THE OLD BURTON GRAVEYARD, TWO OR THREE MILES WEST OF MITCHEL, INDIANA. 3839. Frances "Franky" Carpenter

BIO:
http://www.martygrant.com/genealogy/carpenter/carpenter-mathias.htm
Frances Carpenter was born 26 Jan 1771 in Deep Creek community of Surry Co, NC (now Yadkin County). Frances, known as "Franky" was born and christened with a German name, "Maria Phrone Zimmerman", and it was recorded as such in the Moravian Records, and gave her birth date and that she was a child of Mathias and Elizabeth. Our dear cousin Linda S. Watford (deceased) discovered this record a few years ago at the Moravian Archives in Winston-Salem, NC.
If I understand Germanic naming patterns correctly, the tradition was to name all the daughters with the same first name (such as "Maria", "Anna", etc) and refer to them by the middle name. The same would be true for the sons, all named "Johannes", or "George", etc. It appears that Mathias and Elizabeth started out with this same tradition, by naming Franky that way. We don't have birth records for the other children, so we don't know if the tradition was continued or not.
I've never found any records to support it, but family tradition records that Franky Carpenter married a Mr. Weatherman in Surry Co, NC. This Mr. Weatherman died soon after marriage, and apparently there were no children (or none we have discovered). This Mr. Weatherman is quite probably a son of Christian Weatherman who was a neighbor of Mathias Carpenter in old Surry County. Their marriage date would have been ca 1785 or so.
There was only one Weatherman listed on the 1786 census in Surry County, and that was Christian Weatherman.
Franky then married William Davis <../davis/wnc/davis-william.htm>. ca 1786 or so. They would have to have married in Surry County, since that is where her parents were then, however, it is possible that she and her Weatherman husband had moved to Burke County where Davis was living then, and they married there. Being a widow, she would not need her parents permission to marry.
In any event, after marrying William Davis, they lived in Burke County in the area that later became Yancey County (in 1833), and later became Mitchell County (in 1861) and finally, Avery County (in 1911).
See William Davis' own page for additional information on their family.

William Davis

GRAVE: images
http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=121400633
Corp William Davis
Birth: 1727
Virginia, USA
Death: Oct. 5, 1841
Yancey County
North Carolina, USA
According to careful Census analysis by Marty Grant, William's birth year is closer to about 1733.
Several family traditions give William's birth place as various locations on the British Isles. However, on the 1880 Federal Census, the first U. S. Census to list the parents' nativity, three of his four surviving children give his birthplace as Virginia. The fourth gave North Carolina as her father's birth place. Though not conclusive evidence, it must be considered compelling information from the available records.
The plaque states that William was a member of the 2nd North Carolina Regiment. This 'fact' seems to be in error if the statements of William's brother-in-law, Jacob Carpenter, are to be believed. Those statements say that William was at the Battle of King's Mountain and was wounded in the thigh. The problem is, the 2nd North Carolina Regiment Continental Line did not participate in the skirmish against Cornwallis' men at King's Mountain. Additional research should be conducted by interested parties.
It is known from William's will, recorded in Yancey Co., NC (Will Book 1, p. 353), that he was married once before he married Frances Wiseman née Carpenter. Therein he explicitly states they had three daughters and that they were the only children she bore him. Her name is not given in the will.
Any corrections or additions to this brief biography should be accompanied by verifiable documentation.

3842. Mary Carpenter

BIO:
http://www.martygrant.com/genealogy/carpenter/carpenter-mathias.htm
Mary Carpenter married Joseph Roten (also spelled "Josiah" on occasion) ca 1807 in Ashe County.
Joseph Roten was born ca 1783/84 in Delaware (per the 1850 census) or North Carolina per the 1860 census.
The name "Roten" was also spelled "Roughten" on some records. Pronounced "Row-ten".
There were no Roten's in 1800 Ashe County, so no clues to who Joseph's parents were.
Joseph Roten was listed on the 1810 census in Ashe County as "J. Roughten". There were two listed this way, on different pages. One was much older (age 26-44, born ca 1755/74), and quite possibly father of Joseph. Near Joseph was a "L. Roughten", possibly his brother. Next to Joseph was "J. Miller", quite possibly his brother-in-law Jonathan Miller <../miller/miller-jonathan-ashe.htm>. (Too bad this census taker only used initials!)

Frances ROTEN (1809) daughter
Joseph was listed on the 1820 census in Ashe County, unfortunately, this census was mostly alphabetical, so we can't tell who his neighbors were. The ages of Joseph and wife in this census aren't an exact match, but this is them, I'm sure. An older woman, perhaps Joseph's mother was with them in 1820.

In October 1835, after the death of Mathias Carpenter, his heirs made several deeds among themselves dividing his property. Joseph and Mary Roten were named on all of the deeds selling land to the other heirs, and on one deed (all were dated 21 Oct 1835), the other heirs sold Joseph Roten 300 acres on North Fork New River including the Big Spring. (Ashe County, NC Deed Book G page 165).

Mary Carpenter Roten died in Ashe County between 1860 and 1870. I don't know where she is buried, perhaps at the Welch Cemetery near her parents.
Joseph Roten died in October 1869 in Ashe County, as reported on the 1870 census Mortality Schedule. He is possibly buried at the Welch Cemetery also.
There are probably many records to be found in Ashe County for this family, but I have not searched them out yet.

1689. Joseph Carpenter

NOTE:
Joseph (17) Carpenter was born 3 June 1800, died 27 November 1874 and married on 29 September in Boone County, Missouri, Arabella Davis, daughter of Daniel and Lucinda (Hawkins) Davis. She was born 18 June 1812 and moved to Boone County circa 1825. Joseph Carpenter was a twin.

NOTE:
Mary Evelyn Harlow Carpenter, wife of Joseph H. Carpenter, 3rd great grandson of Joseph (14) Carpenter, wrote The Carpenters of Fort Carpenter, 1746- 1949 (privately published at Covington, VA, cl949).
It is a valuable work on one line of descent from Joseph the pioneer but virtually impossible to obtain. The author was fortunate enough to borrow Fort Carpenter's only copy for xeroxing during a 1989 visitation and return the original at his convenience by insured parcel post.

1696. Thomas Carpenter

MISC:
Ohio was formed as a state in 1803 from the Ohio Territory formed in 1799. Before that it was the "Territory NW of the Ohio River" and before 1790 it was the CT Reserve area.
Gallia County (formed in 1803), OH is directly across the river from Mason County (formed in 1804), VA, now WV.

CONFLICT:
Per his claimed son Joseph, this Thomas was born in VA of which part became WV. AND not born in OH. Yet the 1860 and 1870 US Census indicate birth in OH but the 1850 and 1880 cite VA/WV. See details below.

Thomas (17) Carpenter was born in October of 1796 in Gallia County, Ohio, married Sarah Wright circa 1830 and died after 1880 in Roane County, West Virginia.
Sarah was the daughter of Basil (pronounced Bozzel) and Nancy Jones (Miller) Wright and supposedly born around 1812. (Census and other records indicate an earlier birth year circa 1803/1806. Nancy was the widow of Samuel Miller. They were the parents of the Samuel Miller who married Rebecca Carpenter and Joshua Miller who married Nancy Wolfe, daughter of Jonathan and Bridget (Runnion) Wolfe. Basil Wright is said to have been a veteran of both the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812. The Millers and Wrights became half cousins of each other after this marriage.

There is as much disagreement over the age of Thomas (17) Carpenter's wife and when he married her as there is in naming his father Jesse's family. Most sources claim that Sarah Wright was born circa 1812 (She even has a tombstone to that effect) and that she married Thomas about 1830. Her age in the censuses and a study of the birth order in Basil and Nancy (Jones) (Miller) Wright's family indicate that her birthyear was approximately 1803.
Martha (cl8l7), Joseph (c1820) and John A. W823) are usually thought of as being children of Jesse but are probably offspring of his son Thomas, although the best approximation of their marriage date is 1823. Some purists may have a problem with this, but a legally recognized nuptial has never been a necessary prerequisite to parenting.

Thomas Carpenter's family had a cabin and farm at the present site of the state hospital in Spencer, Roane County, West Virginia as early as the 1820's. This tract of land was particuliarly valuable because it encompassed a small cave that contained the saltpeter so necessary for manufacturing gunpowder. Hunting was essential to supplement whatever could be raised on the farm and stored for winter. The meat and hides of these animals could also be traded for table salt, lead and other valuable products in Kanawha. On one accasion, Thomas acquired a complete set of dishes for his wife, Sarah, and carried them across the mountains in a "wampus" (a sling tied over the neck and one shoulder to carry things from the front.

NOTE: Based on the above, we should find some trace of them in the census records.
Mason and Jackson Counties of Virginia became part of WV in 1862.
Mason County was created in 1804 from Kanawha County.
Jackson County was created in 1831 from Kanawha, Mason and Wood.

DEATH: about 1882
NOT THIS PERSON - CAUTION - some claim (obviously in error) that the Thomas above was the Thomas Carpenter of Belmont County, OH whose probate was dated 9 Oct 1882 and of who some claim as a death date. See below.
But per filmstrip number 604 of 2303, indicates that Thomas died on 11 Feb 1881 in Athens, Athens County, Ohio who died in the Insane Asylum. But this Thomas also held properties in the Town of Flushing that accumulated rents due and cited in the probate records and had to be sold. No spouse of children cited.
On filmstrip number 621 of 3203 is a kinship document dated 6 April 1881.

Sarah E. Wright

There is as much disagreement over the age of Thomas (17) Carpenter's wife and when he married her as there is in naming his father Jesse's family. Most sources claim that Sarah Wright was born circa 1812 (She even has a tombstone to that effect) and that she married Thomas about 1830. Her age in the censuses and a study of the birth order in Basil and Nancy (Jones) (Miller) Wright's family indicate that her birth year was approximately 1803. Martha (cl8l7), Joseph (c1820) and John A. c.1823) are usually thought of as being children of Jesse but are probably offspring of his son Thomas, although the best approximation of their marriage date is 1823. Some purists may have a problem with this, but a legally recognized nuptial has never been a necessary prerequisite to parenting.
Following taken from the Mowrey book, page 176, Vol. III, in misc family entries;
Sarah E. Wright was born circa 1803/05 died in July of 1872 and married about 1823 Thomas Carpenter (born in October of 1796 in Meigs County, Ohio, died after 1880 Roane County, West Virginia, son of Jesse and Sarah Jane "Jenny" Riffe).
From the Mowrey book, page 180, Vol. III the following information is taken:
Nancy (Jones) Miller's marriage to Basil Wright after the death of her first husband Samuel Miller, presents some timeline problems for the Carpenters. If census records are to be believed, then Sarah E. Wright (wife of Thomas Carpenter) would have had to have been born circa 1803/06 rather than the 1812 date that is usually assigned her.

In order to place Sarah in the family with some degree of certainly I am using the birth date of 1803, which fits into the family. Future research may correct this assumption.

3853. Elizabeth or Eliza Carpenter

NAME: Eliza or Elizabeth.
Eliza (18) Carpenter (birthdate unknown) married Hiram Chapman before 1850.

3855. Dusky Carpenter

NAME: Dusky may have been a nickname?
In another part of the Mowrey Book is the following note which may relate:
John A. (17) Carpenter was born 1820-1823, married Mary E. Sharp circa 1850, resided in Jackson County in 1850 and died in Roane County after 1870. (There is much evidence to suggest that Martha, Joseph and John A. were actually children of Thomas (17) and Sarah (Wright) Carpenter and that Stephen and Susan were children of John (16) and Sarah Ratcliff Carpenter. Research is necessary!)

3856. Martha Carpenter

Martha (18) Carpenter was born circa 1817/20, unmarried in 1860.
May have died young.
NOTE: Her parents married about 1823!

CENSUS: 1860 US Census - enumerated with brother Joseph - see his notes.

See page 48 of the Mowrey 1997 book.
Page 49 conflicts with page 48 - See the excerpt below from page 49:
The author does not concur with many reputable Carpenter family historians on the make-up of Jeremiah and Elizabeth (Hamm) Carpenter's dozen children.
Many list a Rosina (RESINA) Carpenter, who married John Gilpin as one of their older daughters. It is far more likely that this Rosina Carpenter is part of the Nicholas and Christopher Carpenter (nee, Zimmerman) lineage.
See also "A Carpenter Genealogy" by Lyle Sharp and Frances Stoner, 1996 which documents the Zimmerman-Carpenter Family of VA and the South.

SEE: Pioneer Women of Liverpool (OH) which lists her and her husband.
She was cheated by a friend and lost what they had and later moved.

1666. Rebecca Carpenter

See page 48 of the Mowrey 1997 book.
Page 48: 4. Rebecca (17) Carpentrer was born on April 1, 1793, married Samuel C. Miller circa 1816 and died October 31, 1875. Samuel was born 25 April 1796, served in the War of 1812 and died 13 January 1874. Both are buried in the old "Miller Cemetery" on Stover's Fork in Roane County, West Virginia. The story of Samuel's having traded forty dollars and a hog for Rebecca's hand in marriage was reaffirmed by a number of people, quite independently of each other, in several of this writer's (Mowrey) recent forays (1997) into Braxton and Webster Counties.

Rebecca, married Samuel Miller (Bette Butcher Topp her descendants).
Have a great deal of info on Samuel Miller and family.
Rebecca Carpenter, b. 1 Apr. 1793 Braxton Co. Va., d. 31 Oct. 1875 Roane Co. WV. Rebecca Carpenter's mother's maiden name was Mann, d/o John Mann, Sr. & Francis Elizabeth Carpenter, d/o Joseph Coles Carpenter. Francis was a aunt to Jeremiah Carpenter.

1. Mary Judith "Polly" or "Judy" Miller was born circa 1815 and married John S. (17) Carpenter, her uncle, 1834 or earlier. This may have been a "common law" marriage (no record is found). She is often confused with her aunt, Judith Carpenter, who was the second wife of Jesse Tanner. Family tradition says that Elijah Carpenter, her son, had a full brother named George. Research neither confirms or denies this. He had three half siblings (possibly full brothers) including James, Madison and Henson found but unnamed , of course, in the household of Thomas Carpenter (son of Solomon) in the 1840 census for Braxton County, Virginia. Elijah was already living with his "Uncle" Jesse Tanner in Roane County at this time.

This Joshua is often mistaken for his uncle, Joshua, for whom one of the Miller's Runs in Roane County is named. The uncle was the first Miller to settle in Roane County.
4. Basil Miller was born circa 1820, married Elizabeth Tanner, daughter of William Tanner, 8 March 1847 and died after 1870 in Roane County.
5. Amos Miller was born around 1822, married 1st Susan Helmeck 31 October 1846 and 2nd Susan Brannon 1 September 1848 and died 7 July 1904.
6. Jeremiah Miller was born 26 April 1823, died 24 June 1896 and married 1st Adaline Tolley 16 September 1841; 2nd Lydia Rollins 30 November 1864 & 3rd Minerva L. Blackwell 26 May 1870. Family stories say that Jeremiah was married five times. If so, the names of his other wives and marriage dates are undiscovered.
7. Nancy Miller was born circa 1825, married Richard Wine 24 November 1848 and died 12 July 1890.
8. John Miller was born circa 1826, never married and died after 1860.

The author has yet to encounter a Roane County family researcher who hasn't found an error in William H. Bishop's History of Roane County, West Virginia (Spencer, WV, 1927) although there has to be someone- somewhere! This book was written by subscription only and is a useful resource, but not very reliable. However, many family histories, such as the Millers, are based almost entirely upon it and are perpetuations of his mistakes- enough said!

Mary Judith Miller was a daughter of Samuel and Rebecca (Carpenter) Miller and John's niece. (NOTE!!!) She is often confused with Mary Carpenter, daughter of Jesse, and Judith Carpenter, daughter of Jeremiah, who were the first two wives of Jesse Tanner, because of their commonality in Christian and nicknames and misinformation in John A. It might take me some time to go through this. I probably won't get to it until after April 15. I still have to do my taxes and as of Sunday am working with the police investigating a break in at my grandmother's house Zadia Dale Price Greathouse. She passed in 2010. I was planning to remodel her house just to have a place to stay in Richwood when want to visit there, but nope... the thieves and druggees aren't going to let us keep anything decent there. It has been broken into three times. It sets on the Greathouse homestead land settled there in 1906 when Ervin M. Greathouse, son of Isaac B. & Sarah Elizabeth Tanner Greathouse moved his family there to run his own lumber tram operation hauling logs to Cherry River Boom & Lumber Company.At first glance at Judith "Polly" Carpenter... I think Jesse Tanner's first wife Mary Elizabeth "Polly" Carpenter nickname may have been attached to Judith by some researchers who didn't catch that Jesse Tanner married Mary Elizabeth "Polly" about 1820. She appears to have died about the time her son William Tanner was born about 1836. She has been reported as daughter of Jesse & Sarah Jane Riffe Carpenter. Jesse next married Judith Carpenter daughter of Jeremiah & Elizabeth Hamm Carpenter about 1827. Their first child appears to have been Thomas Tanner if I recall. I have not seen any records in which Judith was named Polly.I can give you Judith's death record rather quickly, in which Jesse Tanner related her parents as J. [Jeremiah] and Elizabeth [Hamm] Carpenter. Her death register entry is on line 41.--Rick Greathouserick@greathouse.us mailto:rick@greathouse.us> (Donna (Maxwell) Tivener has copy of certificate.

An Amos Carpenter newspaper obituary. 19 May 1894. (Do not know who this Amos Carpenter is) Committed Suicide. On Monday the rumor reached here that Amos Carpenter, a prominent citizen of Webster County, had committed suicide, but there was no confirmation of it until the Intelligence of the 12th. inst., came to hand which contained the folliwng:--Amos Carpenter, a prominent and infuential farmer of the Webster county, who lives near Erbacon, attempted suicide last night at 10 o,clock about one mile and a half from his home by shooting himself with a 32-calibre revolver. The ball took effect in the right breast. Dr. Hyer pronounced it fatal. Everyone that has visted Webster Springs no doubt remembers Mr. Carpenter, as his home has always been a resting place on this long journey. He is resting easier to-night, but the doctor has not hopes of his recovery. Domestic troubles seems to have been the cause of the act.

1674. Judith "Polly" Carpenter

NAME: Judith was known as Polly, but her name is often spellt as Judy or Judah instead of Judith. See page 48 of the Mowrey 1997 book:
Per page 48: 11. Judith (17) Carpenter was born around 1809, married Jesse "Ike" Tanner circa 1837 and died 10 October 1859 (Jesse reported her death in Roane County. Other records have her death in Braxton county, VA.
She was fifty years old and the daughter of J. and Elizabeth (Hamm) Carpenter of Braxton (page 49) County. She and Jesse's first wife, Mary Carpenter (daughter of Jesse and Sarah Jane Riffe Carpenter) are probably buried in the old Tanner Cemetery on Craig Ridge.

MARRIAGES need clarification. Children conflicts. Could there be 2 Mary Carpenters?

Jesse "Ike" Tanner

BOOK: See page 52 (for notes) of the Mowrey 1997 book. See book information below:
UPDATE OF THE GENEALOGY OF THE NEW ENGLAND CARPENTER FAMILY OF ENGLISH ORIGIN - THE VIRGINIA / WEST VIRGINIA BRANCH - SOME DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH CARPENTER - PIONEER OF THE JACKSON RIVER - MOWREY"S VERSION.
BY TERRY LEE CARPENTER AND PAUL THOMAS MOWREY.
PRO BONO PUBLICO - PRIVATELY PUBLISHED, DOVER, OHIO, 1997.
BY PAUL THOMAS MOWREY.
PAGE 52: 2. Jesse "Ike" Tanner was born circa 1795, married 1st Mary "Polly" Carpenter 14 August 1820 in Mason County (Mary was a daughter of Jesse and Sarah Jane Riffe Carpenter) and 2nd Judith Carpenter (Judy was a daughter of Jeremiah and Elizabeth Hamm Carpenter) circa 1837. All of Jesse and Judith Carpenter Tanner's children 1837-1846 listed their parents as Jesse and Judy Tanner when they married. Judy died 10 October 1859 and is reportedly buried in the "Old Tanner Cemetery" on Craig Ridge. Mary Carpenter Tanner died in childbirth with her last child, William, and is supposedly buried in the same graveyard. Jesse Tanner married 3rd Lucinda Raines 11 February 1860 and died 26 March 1885. Lucinda was a daughter of Uriah and Massie (Hughes) Gandee, a widow of Abraham Raines and a first cousin, but once removed, to Jesse Tanner through the Hughes family. They are buried in the Memorial Gardens Cemetery at Spencer, West Virginia. Jesse and Lucinda's (Page 52) children, 1862-1872, all listed their parents as Jesse and Lucy or Lucinda when they married. Parental listings offer substantial proof of whom Jesse Tanner married and when he married them.

NOTE: Jesse "Buffalo" TANNER Sr. AND Jesse "Ike" TANNER may or may not be the same person. I think maybe, but there is enough debate to allow two until further details come forth.

NOTE:
Carolyn Spence of Trinity, NC in a letter dated 8 Mar 1999, updated this line. She believes that the data for this William Carpenter (who is listed in the Ancestral File as dying on 26 Nov. 1832 in Surry County, NC) is in error. She says the following Will she found provides information that William died in 1859 and not 1832.

WILL: Will of William Carpenter from Surry County NC Will book # 5 page 46.
I think this William was the father of Buck Carpenter.
WILL OF WILLIAM CARPENTER (dated) 4 JAN 1859
My body shall be decently buried and my funeral charges and just debts be paid by executor. My two youngest daughters Nancy Carpenter and Frances Carpenter get my tract of land whereon I now live divided as follows: Beginning at a forked pine the west corner of said land, then runs southeast to a white oak the beginning corner of said tract, the south side of said land and of said tract I give to my daughter Nancy and the north side together with the mill I give to my daughter Frances. Also, my daughters Nancy and Frances all my household and kitchen furniture to be equally divided between them and one cow each. Son John Carpenter gets my blacksmith tools. The balance of my property is to be sold and equally divided between all my lawful heirs. Executor: Frances Carpenter.
Witnesses: Jonathan J. McMickle and Joseph Isaacks. Proved by J J McMickle.
Probate Aug term 1860.
William was last found in the 1850 Surry census with a daughter Frances 19, Mandy which is probably Nancy mispelled, and a child named Rhudy which was probably Rhody mispelled. John lived nearby and was already a blacksmith, indicating to me that John was using his fathers tools, and the Will above gave the instruments to John outright.
Since a wife was not named in this Will written in 1859, she had died prior to Jan 1859.

Subject: Benjamin CARPENTER - SC (maybe NC?) Date: Thu, 29 Jul 1999
From: "J. R. Carpenter"
I am looking for any information on Benjamin CARPENTER (born ca 1770-80, died ca 1836-1840 Dale Co. AL). According to oral tradition in one branch of descendants, his name was Samson (perhaps Samson was his middle name?). Benjamin Carpenter married ca 1806 to Milly --?--. They resided in SC ca 1808-1816, in Dale Co. AL in 1830, and bought land on 5 Jan 1836 in Dale Co. AL. Milly and children resided in Dale Co. AL in 1840 and in Coffee Co. AL in 1850. No further mention of Benjamin after the land sale that I've seen. His son, my ancestor, Sampson A. CARPENTER (born ca 1816 in SC), married ca 1838 to Nancy MAYBERRY (born ca 1817 AL). They resided in Coffee Co. AL in 1850 and 1860. There is an established MABRY line in Union Co SC, coming from Surry Co VA but through the Warren Co area of NC (near Nash Co). My Nancy may be from a Franklin Co GA branch of the Mabrys.
Benjamin's family may have been in NC before SC, but that is unproven. I thought at one time that his father was Thomas "Jack" of Nash Co NC, but I have not been able to prove it. There were some PA Dutch Zimmermans who came to middle NC in the 1750s, eventually moving south until in Old Tryon Co, with some of this line being buried as Carpenters in Blacksburg SC. I have been unable to prove any descent from these people as well.
I have info on Benjamin's descendents, if anyone is interested.
Thanks,
Rick Carpenter.

SEE: Carpenter Chronicles Volume 6 1990 - Branch # 15 - page 15-18 submitted by Terry Lee Carpenter.
Other than Elijah C. Carpenter was the son of Daniel and Matha (Marlar) Carpenter, no other ancestry is given.
This family was Baptist and Daniel farmed in Old Tishomingo, now Prentiss county, MS.
Sources for his family include: Family Bible, Census Records, Marriage Records of Tishomingo, Alcorn and Prentiss counties, MS.
Terry Lee Carpenter states: "Please correct the line to show that neither Moses Carpenter nor Daniel Carpenter has a proven parent, and Allen Marlar is not proved to be the father of Martha Marlar."
While Terry Lee believes this line ties into the Solomon Carpenter line he has not proven the connection.

Subject: Re: FTDNA test ...
John,
I can comment on 5853, which is of great importance to me -- it is me. The line as shown on the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA project web page is:
 Nathaniel Carpenter-625 b. 1668/1669
Joseph C. Carpenter-5312 b. 1693
* Solomon Carpenter-5330 b. 1714/1720
 Solomon Carpenter, Jr.-31373 b. 1745/1750
 Unknown Carpenter-65975 b. 1784
* Daniel Carpenter- 66005 b. 1810

 Elijah Carpenter-66004 b. 1847
 Walter Carpenter-66030 b. 1886
* Alive
* FTDNA Kit # 5853

I would "correct" the above to this:

 ?Nathaniel Carpenter-625 b. c1668-1669
 ?Joseph Carpenter-5312 b. c1693
* ?Solomon Carpenter-5330 b. c1714-1720
 ?Solomon Carpenter, Jr.-31373 b. c1745-1750
 Daniel Carpenter- 66005 b. c1800
* Elijah C. Carpenter-66004 b. 1847
 Walter L. Carpenter-66030 b. 1886
 Warner H. Carpenter b. 1921
* FTDNA Kit # 5853

This shows where there is conjecture about the line, removes the middle initial C. from Joseph Carpenter-5312, and removes the Unknown Carpenter-65975 born c1784. Joseph Carpenter-5312 did not have a middle name that is documented anywhere in original records - the attribution of the middle name Coles to this Joseph is an error that first appeared in print in the 1980s and has been propagated by rote copying. Unknown Carpenter-65975 is removed because there doesn't appear to be an additional generation between Solomon Jr. and Daniel. Solomon Jr. married comparatively late in life by the standards of the day - he was approximately 30-34 years of age at his marriage in 1784 - so Daniel would have been born at about the 16 year point in the marriage, which would place him as the 6th to 8th child (estimating a child was born an average of every 2.5 years to a married couple in those days). This is within expected norms for that era and location.

The reason "correct" is in quotes is because I cannot prove this line is indeed correct. We have an excellent oral family tradition and some circumstantial evidence supports the line as shown, however, it remains unproved. The only truly certain facts are these:

- Joseph Carpenter-5312 came from New York colony to western VA in about 1748. However, his parentage is speculative, not proved, though some circumstantial evidence supports the possibility that Nathaniel Carpenter-625 was his father. I am doubtful of this connection. If you dig into the documentation of the reputed connection, there is almost nothing there but unsupported statements dating back into the 1970s. This gets into more than I can explain in a short space - it would take several pages to discuss the details of this one proposed link in the lineage.
This is one reason the Y-DNA study has been of such great interest to me.

- The first certain link in this line, i.e., one for which I have indisputable documentation, is the father-son link between Daniel and Elijah. From there on back, there is significant doubt for discussion.

The link between Joseph and Solomon Sr. is another one I am highly doubtful of - there is significant evidence that Solomon Sr. was a brother of Joseph Sr., rather than a son, and the suffix "Sr." was due to his being older than a coexistent Solomon. For details on this, see the paper Raquel Carpenter Sonnenberg and I authored, which is on the CE CD. This paper was based on independent professional research done by a respected genealogist whom we hired to research the line, as a result of a long-standing disagreement between me and pretty much everybody else (including Raquel's father who was a family historian) over the reliability of past interpretations. The independent professional agreed with me - the line is most likely not as it has been represented for the past 30+ years. Exactly how it should be pieced together is still in question - and Y-DNA results are crucial to resolving that question.

I am still very actively researching my line, but have not made a lot of progress in the past 10 years because very little new data has come to light. Part of the problem is a lack of data - Daniel and his father Solomon Carpenter lived so far out on the fringe of the frontier that there are almost no institutional records, and all the family has to go on is oral tradition - no family Bible or other written evidence has yet been uncovered. The repetition of common names, particularly Solomon and Joseph, has made sorting out the lines very difficult. Recruiting more people to join the Y-DNA project is also important - one may match my line closely and give me a vector to follow.

I have also been accumulating records of the southeastern NY families, in particular Nathaniel Carpenter-625. Once I have enough to start delineating family groups, I hope to find out whether Joseph Carpenter-5312 was related to Nathaniel or not. There is a much longer story, but I've already gone on too much - suffice it to say that now that I have seen the Y-DNA profiles, I believe my line has a more distant relationship to the Providence line than previously believed. How to present this is now the question, and I would appreciate your feedback based on your expert knowledge of what the Y-DNA data indicates. I have no problem with my profile being removed from the group it's currently in, and if the lineage should be abbreviated to stop with Daniel Carpenter- 66005, that is alright with me too. Accuracy is my foremost concern. Regards, Terry

John,Years ago, in the late 1980s, I corresponded with a descendant of this line through James' brother Samuel A. Carpenter, who thought Solomon Carpenter and Elizabeth Poer were Samuel A.'s parents, but her story was not consistent, and she had only oral tradition for most of it. If her basic story is correct, a descendant should test into Group 2A. YDNA is possibly the only hope for determining whether there is any truth to the tale -- not much recorded evidence has been found.Terry

James Alexander Carpenter is [supposedly] listed as a son of Solomon and Elizabeth Poer Carpenter in a family Bible in the hands of descendants in Mississippi. The Bible supposedly lists four children: Samuel A. Carpenter, Cynthia B. Carpenter, David M. Carpenter, and James A. Carpenter.

Subject: RE: Carpenters - another related lineage found
John,
I wish I knew who had that Bible. That would definitely fill in the gaps on my tree. I do have all of Solomon and Elizabeth's children in my tree, but had never had any proof of Solomon and questioned it. Cynthia B. Carpenter married Isaac Haptenstall. According to her death records (from Greenbrier, VA) that I found on Ancestry. It lists the father as Jno. And E. Carpenter. That raised some doubt in my mind. It could be that whoever provided the information did not know since Solomon had been estranged from the family. And, I have had problems finding what could be him on census records. I did go back to the 1850 census record and found 2 or 3 Samuel Carpenters in North Carolina with an Owen Carpenter living near one of them. I created a tree that was private and unsearchable trying to piece Solomon and Owen together and go forward, but gave up on it since I had nobody else to relate to them.

John, Rhonda, Glenda,
I looked back at my correspondence from Anne Carpenter Kinsey, and she implies that the family Bible was in the possession of descendants in Mississippi who were descended from Solomon Carpenter through son James Alexander Carpenter whose daughter Georgianne I. Carpenter married Newton J. Stafford. Georgianne's and Newton's gravestone is on Find A Grave, Memorial # 53099576. She was always a bit vague about where the Bible actually was. The two children she mentions as telling her about the Carpenters are James Newton Stafford and his twin sister Nancy Isabell Stafford. Both are now deceased -- see Find A Grave Memorials 53099580 and 53099579. Anne is about 89 years of age -- she was born in 1925. In 1987 when I first corresponded with her by mail, her address was 1178 Ginger Drive, Mobile, AL 36693. I lost some of the letters in a move overseas in 1990 -- one box of books and papers got lost along the way and the earlier letters were in it, but I have one from later in 1990. I corresponded with her briefly by e-mail in 2006, but she didn't share any new information about the family Bible. It would be wonderful if someone could find that family Bible to verify what is in it.
Terry

Subject: RE: Carpenters - another related lineage found
Good morning everyone,

I too am familiar with Annie Carpenter Kinsey. I corresponded with her quiet frequently about 4 or 5 years ago. She has nothing in computer software, only on paper. I have made numerous attempts to get more information out of her without any success. She is one of the cousins that stated Solomon Carpenter and Elizabeth Poer were married and divorced. She has never mentioned a family Bible to me. Only that she had at one time shared information from Ray Carpenter that does/did live in Mobile as well.
Ray Carpenter did share with me what he knew about the ancestry back around 1981, providing names back to Solomon and also a couple of photos that he had of William Hinton Carpenter and Kathryn "Kate" Hanson Carpenter. Again, Ray never mentioned that a Bible was in existence. My deceased husband was ill for quite some time and with working full time, I placed my genealogy on the back burner. That was pre-internet days…
The most that I gathered from both of them is that Solomon set fire to a trunk full of memorabilia and papers after he and Elizabeth divorced and that any significant evidence was burned in the trunk.
I guess if there is a way to discover the children of Newton and Nancy Isabell Stafford, that would be my best option for trying to locate the Bible.
I have created a Facebook group for the Carpenter family and I hope that by recruiting more Carpenter's that it should give light to what direction to go in.
I sincerely appreciate all of the help that everyone has given me. I guess that comes from us each being passionate about our family history.

Thank you so much for this compilation of Carpenter's. There are some (living ancestor's) that I did not have in my tree. My original tree has most of these people along with the citations included. My original tree includes both my paternal and maternal ancestor's.
My husband and I are leaving on Wednesday morning for Oklahoma to see his son graduate from boot camp. Upon our return, I plan to make a trip to Mississippi and visit Nollie Wilbur Carpenter. He seems to have a lot of knowledge and should be able to provide some useful information.
With everyone's help, I have learned that there is a Carpenter Family Bible out there and that Judy inherited it. I am attempting to find out who Judy is and will try to contact her and obtain a copy of the recordings in the Bible.
Without the help of you, Glenda and Terry I would still be in the dark.

648. John Carpenter

Number 272 in the book, The Carpenter Family in America, 1901.
Family on page 162 & 163. John was a mechanic at Purchase, Westchester county, NY. He married a widow.

MYSTERY:
We have a bit of a mystery here.
We have what appears to be a English Carpenter family with a child (Michael) born in Ireland. Michael was about 14 when he came to America in 1844. The only match we have is the 1850 US Census with the family of John Carpenter. Could Michael have been adopted or taken in and assumed the Carpenter surname?

POSSIBLE MATCHES for this John Carpenter include ...

1) John Carpenter-91018 (b. abt 1785 of Dutchess, NY) son of John Carpenter and Mary Ann Carpenter (both born Carpenters). No spouse or children.
2) John Carpenter-3453 (b. abt 1780 of, Hoosick, Rensselaer, NY) son of Luke Carpenter and Lanah Rhymus
3) John Carpenter-190669 (b. 12 May 1783 NY) son of William David Carpenter and Jane Love. This is an internet genealogy with no documentation. No spouse or children.
4) John Carpenter-26574 (b. abt 1782 NYC, NY, NY) son of Abel Carpenter (b. in Westchester County) and Elizabeth Stillwell. No spouse or children.
5) John Carpenter-25827 (b. 17 Sep 1785 LI, NY) son of Jacob Carpenter and Ruth Bailey. This John Carpenter married a Lettie Burges abt 1803/1805 and had 4 known children.
Jane Maria Carpenter b. 1811 LI, NY
Ruth Carpenter b. 1813 LI, NY
Abraham Burtish Carpenter b. 1817 LI, NY
Catherine Carpenter b. 1819 LI, NY *
* This one is listed because of the possibility of a daughter Catherine shows in the 1850 and 1855 census records cited below.

Subject: [CARPENTER] Jesse Carpenter of Chemung County, New York
Does anyone on list relate to the following Jesse Carpenter? (I'm beginning to suspect that I may .... or I may not. Sigh.) Connie
****
Our County and Its People A History of the Valley and County of Chemung From the Closing Years of the Eighteenth Century, 1892, by Ausburn Towner

page 507
Jesse Carpenter, Chemung, New York
"In 1804 came Jesse Carpenter, a lineal descendant of William Carpenter who came from Amesbury, Wiltshire, England, with Roger Williams and settled at Providence, R. I., in 1636. Jesse settled on what is now the Jacob Lowman estate half a mile west of Baldwin Creek. He had two sons, Jesse, Jr., and Joseph. The latter never married. The living descendants of Jesse Carpenter, Jr., are Edward S., George e., James, and William S. Edward S. and William s. are well known and prominent residents in the town of Big Flats. George E. is a retired merchant and resides in Elmira. James Carpenter still remains on the old homestead, and the house in which he dwells ocupies a site only a few rods to the west of the spot on which his grandfather erected his primitive abode more that fourscore years ago. His father, Jesse Carpenter, Jr., invented and constructed the first horse-power churn in 1832. The indenture in the ground made for the purpose of erecting this machinery is still to be seen near the present farm-house, although the apparatus itself was discontinued in 1876."

vheld@utma.com writes:
John,
Here is the data and general information for Enoch Carpenter family on to present. I used information directly from the family Bible dated 1853. Some of the writing was challenging to read. Let me know what you think. One of the big changes is that the 1901 book lists a sibling named Emma. the Bible lists the name as Emmor and as a son that died shortly afterwards. Both the birth and death are listed on separate pages. Both pages list the name Emmor, as near as I can read it - and definitely say he is a son to Enoch and Sophia.

More About EMMA CARPENTER: Listed as Emmor Carpenter in the family Bible and listed as a son: "Emmor Carpenter, son of Enoch and Sophia Carpenter was born the 26th day 3rd month 1823 Westchester Co., NY (appears to say SomersTown?)

Mr. Carpenter:
Thank you for the quick response and the data that you sent. I think that we have a match except I have the mother of Augustus-26308 as Elizabeth or Betsey (1850 &1860 federal census) rather than Sally Tompkins-26305. I wonder if there were two wives or do I have the wrong Augustus?
Sincerely, Bill Montgomery.

PROBLEM:
Many think Michael is an artifact or a mislabeled person on the 1850 US Census. Some claim he is not really a Carpenter but had some other surname and was enumerated as Carpenter by mistake. They think he is a day laborer or similar working for the Carpenter family. They indicate the pattern given on the census page supports their belief.
When I proached the idea of an adoption, formal or informal, after Michael's immigration in 1844 (age 14) they allowed for the idea. But other than the 1850 Census, no other document supports the idea.
So we have a possibility both ways. JRC Dec 2018.
For example:
NOTE5:
Many of the MacIntyres of Northern Ireland are believed to be descended from the Scottish Clan MacIntyre whose ancient seat was in Lorne, Scotland.
A documented instance of the surname Carpenter being adopted by an Irish McIntyre in America is that of Ireland-born brothers Owen Patrick McIntyre of Placer County, California and Michael Carpenter of Ottawa County, Michigan as shown in McIntyre's last will & testament dated August 25, 1875 and filed September 11, 1875 naming his brother Michael to direct the education of his nephew and namesake Michael's son Owen Patrick Carpenter.

E-MAIL: Wed, 29 Nov 2000 From: Stuart Howell
Thanks very much, John, for responding to my inquiry about Harriet Carpenter. I have seen THE CARPENTER FAMILY IN AMERICA, by Daniel Hoagland Carpenter.
I wondered if Warren Carpenter wasn't Enoch's brother, rather than son, for he was b. 24 Apr 1822, just five years after Enoch's birth. David Carppenter's will, dated 8 Nov 1858, proved 4 Sept 1860, gives to wife, Betty $200 per year, to son, Warren his home, etc., to son, Enoch F. and his wife, property in Greenport, etc. Perhaps, there was a Warren Carpenter, brother to Enoch, and also, a Warren, son of Enoch.
The 1850 U. S. Census for Southold Town (Greenport) listed harriet N. Carpenter as 14 years old, living in the household of Enoch Carpenter, 33, merchant. Also in the household were Mary C. Carpenter, 29; Margaret E. Carpenter, 5; Dennis Pratt, 18, clerk; Thomas Fordham, 17, sailmaker. There was no Warren Carpenter listed, so I suspect he was Enoch's brother, not his son.
On 19 November 1850, Elijah Pierson Raynor (my great grandfather), 17, married in Greenport by Rev. John Reid, Pastor of the Church in Franklinville, L.I., Harriet N. Carpenter, 14, of Greenport. I have a copy of the marriage certificate.
Elijah Pierson Raynor was listed in the Southold Town Census of 1850 as 17 years old, a carpenter, living in the household of Richard Benjamin, 30 yrs. old, in Greenport.
In 1857, Enoch Carpenter was fire chief in Greenport. According to THE SOUTHSIDE SIGNAL, Babylon, NY, Saturday, November 3, 1883, p.2, Enoch F. Carpenter died 12 September 1883 in Newport, Clay County, Texas, and is buried in Sterling Cemetery, Greenport, L.I. I saw his and his wife, Mary's gravestones several years ago - while trying to determine where their daughter, Harriet N. (Carpenter) Raynor was buried. Enoch F. Carpenter's wife, Mary E. Carpenter, died 24 June 1873 (RIVERHEAD WEEKLY NEWS).
Elijah Pierson Raynor had seven sons, the oldest of whom, Franklin Carpenter Raynor, was born 26 Sept 1856. Two months later, 14 Nov 1856, Elijah Pierson Raynor married Harriett N. Goulder (or Golder) of Greenport, b. 1839 in Newtown, L.I., d/o James and Mary Goulder.
What I am trying to determine is what happened to Elijah Pierson Raynor's first wife, Harriet N. (Carpenter) Raynor? Did she perhaps die in childbirth with the birth on 26 Sept 1856 of Elijah Raynor's oldest son, Franklin Carpenter Raynor? If so, perhaps he married less than two months later, Harriett Goulder, on 14 Nov 1856, so his infant son would have a mother. The 1860 U. S. Census for Greenport lists Elijah Raynor as 28 (or 27) years old, ship's carpenter. Also in the household were Harriet Raynor, 24, Franklin Raynor, 4, and Charles Raynor, 2.
I have been trying for years to determine when and where Harriet (Carpenter) Raynor died, and where she is buried. I do know from Elijah Raynor's biography that he didn't reside continuously in Greenport. He was there first as a carpenter's apprentice, then he spent three years in New York City and a year in Connecticut before returning to Greenport; he later, moved to Westhampton Beach, L.I., where he was born. That's where I am, John, with this one. I shall be grateful to you for any suggestions or information you can offer to help me clear up this puzzle.
Thanks for your interest.
Stuart Howell.

E-MAIL reply to Stuart by John R. Carpenter.
Dear Stuart,
A couple of questions ...
Does the 1850 marriage certificate give the bride's full name or partial name?
Check the dates. Could the zero be a six?
Do you have a copy of the 1850 census? What is the occupation of Harriet N.?

What is her relationship to the head of the house listed as? She may have been working or visiting there. Could she be a niece? Was Enoch Carpenter a Godparent?
14 Nov 1856 Harriet N. Goulder - B. 1839 in 1856 per your note.
and B. 1836 per the 1860 Census.
19 Nov 1850 Harriet N. - B. 1836 per the 1850 Census.
My guess with all of this is the two Harriett N.s are the same person.
The 14 Nov is the actual marriage date and the 19 Nov is the filing or certified date.
14 Nov 1850 is a Thursday.
14 Nov 1856 is a Friday. Friday marriages were common for working people.
19 Nov 1856 is a Wednesday.
Franklin Carpenter RAYNOR b. 26 Sep 1856
Franklin RAYNOR b. 1856 - Age 4 in the 1860 Census.
These two children raise the odds of both wives being the same person. That the parents married after Franklin was born makes me think that Franklin was adopted by Elijah Pierson Raynor.
This brings up the question of the name Carpenter as a middle name. Was he sired by a Carpenter? But By which one? In 1856 Harriet was age 20. Was it by Warren - the son or uncle or were they the same person? Note their death dates.

MORE: Thu, 30 Nov 2000 from Stuart Howell.
Thank you very much, John, for the studied analysis of my Harriet Carpenter puzzle.
Harriet Carpenter's name on the marriage certificate is handwritten in ink: Harriet N. Carpenter. The date of the marriage is also handwritten on the certificate "fifty" followed immediately by the words, "joined Elijah Raynor...", so the date could not be fifty-six. The handwriting is identical to that of the signature of John Reid, Pastor the Church in Frnaklinville, so it is quite evident that he wrote out and signed the marriage certificate.
The 1850 Southold Town Census for Greenport lists the family of Enoch Carpenter as I presented it, with no relationship given for the children (Harriet and Margaret), and no occupation for Harriet.
For many years, I was convinced that - as you suggested - Harriet Carpenter and Harriett Goulder were one and the same person. It seemed almost too coincidental that the names of both wives were Harriett N., and that both marriages occurred in November, one in 1850 and the other in 1856. I thought perhaps Rev. John Reid mistakenly listed Harriet's last name on the marriage certificate as Carpenter as that was Elijah Raynor's occupation. I further thought that the marriage of Harriett Goulder and Elijah Raynor could have occurred in 1850, rather than 1856; maybe, the 0 looked like a 6. I later changed my view, however, when I found that Elijah Raynor's oldest child, Franklin had Carpenter as a middle name, and that he was born September 26, 1856, two months before Elijah's marriage to harriett Goulder. Also, there was a Harriet Carpenter in Greenport in 1850 (age 14) and Elijah was in Greenport at the same time as a carpenter's apprentice (age 17). They seem a little young to have married, perhaps, but quite possible.
According to Elijah Raynor's biography (written and published while he was still alive), following three years of apprenticeship in shipbuilding in Greenport, Elijah Pierson Raynor worked for eight months in Connecticut, and then for two years in New York City. He returned to Greenport for three years, and then went back to Westhampton Beach.
I am very well acquainted with eastern Long Island, John; I was born and grew up there (Westhampton Beach). I now reside in New Hampshire. I have spent many hours researching this family in Greenport, as well as elsewhere in Southold and Southampton Towns, on Long Island. I even checked out deaths in New York City during the 1850-1856 time period, thinking Harriet may have died there. I tried looking in the local newspaper (THE TRAVELLER-WATCHMAN) of the time, but unfortunately, the editions during those years were destroyed in a fire at the newspaper office, and I wasn't able to locate copies at other locations - although I perhaps should have tried further. I thought Harriet's death may have been listed in the newspaper.
Until I can find evidence to the contrary, I am continuing to go under the supposition that Harriet Carpenter of Greenport was indeed married to Elijah Pierson Raynor in 1850, that she probably died in childbirth in September 1856, and Elijah Raynor then married less than two months later so his infant would have a mother. That's all speculation, of course, but unless I find out what happened to Harriet Carpenter, presumed daughter of Enoch and Mary Carpenter, I'll continue to hold to that theory.
I shall review further all the information you sent me via email, John, and respond within the next couple of days.
I truly appreciate all the time and effort you have expended on this issue. Stuart.
MORE:

Hi, John -
Just a few more comments after studying the information you sent yesterday:
I don't have a copy of the 1850 Census for Greenport (Southold Town), but I've seen it and copied the entry for Enoch Carpenter's household:

Enoch Carpenter, 33, merchant
Mary C. Carpenter, 29
Margaret E. Carpenter, 5
Harriet N. Carpenter, 14
Dennis Pratt, 18, clerk
Thomas Fordham, 17, sailmaker

I presume the last two persons were boarders.
Harriett Goulder was born 1839, according to her tombstone inscription (her husband was still living at the time (1904), so I would think that an accurate date. I recognize that her birthdate would have been different based on U. S. Census data: 1860 (b. 1836), 1865 Southold Town Census (b. 1837), 1870 (b. 1836), 1880 (b. 1838). So, she evidently was born sometime between 1836 and 1839. Her death certificate gave only her date of death, not a birthdate or age.
Elijah Pierson Raynor's biography, which appeared in PORTRAIT AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD, SUFFOLK COUNTY, 1896, stated that Elijah Raynor married 14 November 1856, Harriet Goulder, resident of Greenport and native of Newtown. At the time this book was published, Elijah was 63 years old, so I assume the information was accurate. There is no mistake that the year of his marriage to Harriet Carpenter on the marriage certificate was 1850; the eighteen hundred was printed and the fifty was written in longhand, no neumerals, so the 50 could not have been mistaken for 56.
If Warren Carpenter was the son of Enoch and Mary Carpenter, and he was born in 1836, why wasn't he included in Enoch's household in the 1850 Census? I think Warren was Enoch's brother, not his son.
These are my additional comments, John. If you have any further thoughts regarding this puzzle, please let me know.
Again, thank you very much for taking the time and effort to respond so thoughtfully to my inquiry.
Stuart.

William Elmore Carpenter
Birth: Aug. 18, 1849
Waterford
Oakland County
Michigan, USA
Death: Dec. 19, 1925
Pontiac
Oakland County
Michigan, USA
"Early History of Michigan with Biographies of State Officers, Members of Congress, Judges and Legislators" [Thorp & Godfrey, State Printers and Binders, Lansing, 1888], State Legislature, p. 155:
WILLIAM E. CARPENTER,
Representative from the second district of Oakland county in 1883, was born August 18, 1849, in the township of Waterford, Oakland county, Michigan. He attended district school winters until 1869, when he entered the state normal school at Ypsilanti, continuing there two terms. Since then he has taught school ten terms. Mr. Carpenter is now engaged in farming. He was elected to the house of representatives as a Democrat.

"Portrait and Biographical Album of Oakland County, Michigan" [Chapman Bros., Chicago, 1891], p.p. 468, 471:
HON. WILLIAM E. CARPENTER. Among the farmers of Waterford Township none bear a better reputation for activity and progressive ideas than the gentleman above named, who owns and occupies a fine farm formerly the property of his father. He has fairly earned the title of Honorable by acceptably serving the interests of the people in the State Legislature, to which he was elected by the Democrats of his district in 1883 and again in 1891. His constituents find him ever alive to their interests and the good of the county, ever ready to expose fraud and corruption and to lift his voice and cast his ballot in favor of the right. He combines the keen observation, quick perception and accurate judgment which make him a power in the community, and give weight to his opinion and advice.

The late B. K. Carpenter, one of the pioneers of this county, was born in the State of New York in 1810 and reared on a farm with limited educational advantages. At the age of twenty-five, in the vigor of a stalwart manhood, he came to Michigan in 1835 and located in Orion Township, this county. His first purchase comprised eighty acres of land, which he improved and made his home for twelve years. Two years later, after his arrival, in 1837, he bought one hundred and twenty acres in Waterford Township, which he partially improved while still residing in Orion Township. In 1847 he removed to the farm on section 20, and there passed the remainder of his life, dying in 1889 at the age of seventy-nine years.

The maiden name of the mother of our subject was Sarah A. Rodenbo. She was born in New Jersey, whence she removed with her parents to New York and later, in 1837, came to Michigan. Her marriage, which took place in 1847, was blest with four children, namely: William E.; John D., a physician at Raleigh, Mo.; Carrie L., who is unmarried and lived with the mother; and Charles H., who resides at Puget Sound. The mother survives at an advanced age, and as one who shared in the toils and privations of frontier life and who is ever ready to lend a helping hand to those around her, as well as for that character which is the crowning glory of womanhood, she receives the hearty respect of all to whom she is known.

The subject of these paragraphs was born in Waterford Township, Oakland County, August 18, 1849, and received a good common-school education, besides attend the State Normal. He made use of his excellent education as a teacher, and was thus engaged for some time, teaching ten terms during winter seasons and working his father's farm on shares during the summer. He began life for himself at the age of twenty-one, and by sturdy integrity and unremitting labor has accumulated a competence for his declining years. His sound judgment has made him useful to his fellow men, whom he has often served in political capacities. He was Township Supervisor six years, Township Clerk two years, School Inspector four years, and Superintendent of Schools one year. He also served as Chairman of the Board of Supervisors one year.

May 31, 1877, Mr. Carpenter was married to Ellen L. Colvin, daughter of Levi B. and Keziah E. Colvin. Mr. Colvin, who is represented elsewhere in this volume, was a pioneer in 1831, and settled in Waterford Township, where Mrs. Carpenter was born September 4, 1848. The happy home of our subject is brightened by the presence of two children born to himself and his estimable wife -- Bessie, who was born in 1888 and Mary in 1888. Socially Mr. Carpenter belongs to the Grange, and the Knights of the Maccabees, and in his political opinions, is a stanch Democrat.

WILLIAM LELAND CARPENTER was bom November 9th, 1854, at Orion, Oakland County, Mich. His father was Charles Ketcham Carpenter, a farmer, and his mother was Jennette Coryell. His father-s ancestors were of English birth. He was a lineal descendant of William Carpenter, who came from Amesbury, England, and in 1637 settled at Providence, in Rhode Island. His mother-s ancestors, viz. the Coryells, were French Huguenots, driven from France in 1685 by the revocation of the Edict of Nantes.
He graduated at the Michigan Agricultural College in 1875 and at the Law Department of Michigan University in 1878. The first money he ever earned was by teaching school in a country district, and in this way he earned nearly all the money expended in getting through college. He commenced the practice of law in 1879 at Detroit, and had no other business until he went on the bench in January, 1894. During the period of his active practice he was associated at different times with .1. R. McLaughlin, under the firm name of Carpenter & McLaughlin, with Ovid N. Case, under the style of Case & Carpenter, and with Colonel John Atkinson.
Mr. Carpenter has been a Republican ever since he could vote, his first Presidential vote being for Hayes in 1876. He was a delegate to the Republican State Conventions in the spring of 1883 and 1889, and in the fall of 1886. 1890 and 1892. He was elected Judge of the Wayne Circuit Court in the spring of 1893 and again in 1899. The Judge is a member of the Detroit Club, Fellowcraft Club, Union Lodge of S. O., F. & A. M., and Michigan Lodge, I. O. O. F. He was married in Detroit, October 15th, 1885. to Miss Elizabeth C. Ferguson. They have two children, Lela and Rolla Louis.
At the polls Judge Carpenter is a great favorite with the voters, and on the bench he is popular, both with litigants and jurors. He gives the impression of entire independence of outside influence and absolute impartiality, and is very prompt and clear in his decisions. The Wayne Circuit Court has had many important civil cases, but very few that were more important or more hotly contested, than that brought by the heirs of the late Captain E. B. Ward against the trustees of the estate, charging fraud, and involving property valued at several million dollars. Several of the leading attorneys of Detroit and Chicago were engaged in the trial, which lasted six weeks, with voluminous evidence, and with complicated questions involved, yet the morning after the arguments were ended Judge Carpenter gave his decision, going into many details of the case, showing a quick comprehension of all its complications and intricacies, and the law applying to them, which was a marvel to many of the attorneys present.

His Family Carpenter trail is from:

Moses Pierce, Westchester's Friend of Freedom by Dorothee von Huene Greenberg - 13 pages. Westchester Historian, vol. 88, no. 1, published in 2012. Produced by the Westchester County Historical Society. Includes a picture of Moses Pierce, his wife Esther Carpenter Pierce and her father Joseph Carpenter. Other pictures include those related to the underground railroad and Abolitionists. Article also includes pictures of their house and area. Good selection of end notes.
The opening lines of the article are:
"A little known hero of Pleasantville, New York, Moses Pierce (1816-1886), left no papers or letters that would document his courage in fighting slavery. Instead he lived his life quietly, acting with conviction and inspiring members of his family and community with his strongly-held abolitionist beliefs. This article is an attempt to bring Moses' story into the light, to reveal the peaceful Quaker farmer who served a vital role in Westchester's Underground railroad ..." See the complete article at:

Ii Daughter Mildred Carpenter born the 20th day of the 12th month 1883, Papillion Nebraska (Married name Mildred Chapman, Lansing, Mich.)

From the Andreas' History of the State of Nebraska it lists Henry L. Carpenter Written by William Cutler and published by Andreas in 1882, this book provides a detailed and comprehensive history of Nebraska.

"HENRY L. CARPENTER, publisher. He was born in Lone Rock, Wis, August 15, 1858, where he lived till the age of twelve years. In 1870, with his father's family, moved to Papillion, where he finished his schooling. In 1872, he entered the Sarpy County Sentinel office on the first number of that journal, and continued there a little more than one year. He then entered the store of his father, remaining one year. In 1874, he went to Columbus, Neb., and there found employment on the Columbus Era, where he worked eight months. Returned to Papillion in the spring of 1875, and found employment on the Papillion Times, where he continued to work till December, 1880, when he purchased the Times of A. R. Kennedy, and has since continued the publication of that journal. The Times is a live local paper, independent in politics, with an increasing circulation. Mr. Carpenter was married in Binghamton, N. Y., December 13, 1879, to Miss Emma A. Balch of Binghamton. Had one child--Virgie, born May 30, 1881, died January 6, 1882."

More from the history of Papillion NE "The Papillion Times.-- The Times was started in the fall of 1874, by the Papillion Publishing Company, who engaged Mr. Frank Horton as editor. On the departure of Mr. Horton for California in 1875, the paper passed into the hands of Andrew Kennedy. This paper was started as a seven-column folio and ran as such until 1879, when it was made a six-column quarto, a form it still retains. In December, 1880, Mr. Kennedy, who had become extensively interested in Colorado, sold his interest to H. L. Carpenter, the present editor and proprietor. Since its change of management the paper has had a remarkably successful career, and now claims a bona fide circulation of 700. It is not patronized by the citizens of the town only, but has an extensive advertising patronage from Omaha wholesale dealers, and others who desire to reach a share of the valuable trade of this place.

Charles A. CARPENTER is one of the veterans in the service of the Chicago Northwestern Railway Company. He has been in the train service for over forty years and for the greater part of that' time has had one of the passenger runs as a conductor through Baraboo. He is a popular man in the Order of Railway Conductors and has a host of friends in his home city and among the traveling public generally.
Mr. Carpenter was born in Westchester County, New York, March 3, 1853.

Three years later, in 1856, his parents, Alonzo B. and Phoebe Jane (Smith) Carpenter, came west and located in Richland County, Wisconsin. Their place of settlement was in Ithaca Township on Bear Creek. Here Alonzo B. Carpenter took up a tract of Government land and followed farming actively for a number of years. He also served one term as county superintendent.
He had eighty acres of land and was in a fair way to prosperity when his good wife died on that farm February 21, 1865, at the age of thirty-one years, two months, twenty-five days. She was survived by five young children: Charles A., Charlotte, now deceased; Eugenia, Benjamin F. and Nellie. Charles was then twelve years of age. The father took his little family back to New York State for one year and then returned to Richland County, Wisconsin, and married for his second wife Miss Elizabeth Waterman. There was one child by the second wife, who was born in Iowa. Alonzo Carpenter followed the lumber business in Iowa for a number of years and died there May 16, 1885, at the age of fifty-four years, eight months, seventeen days. He was a well educated man, having gained his education in New York State. He became a pharmacist and was also a skilled accountant. Politically he was a republican and a member of the Masonic Order. The family on both sides were for generations connected with the Friends or Quaker Church. •

Charles A. Carpenter began his education in Richmond County, attending the public schools, and also for one year attended school at Ossining in Westchester County, New York. He returned to Richmond County with his father and subsequently began working as a farm employee in Walworth County. He had a variety of experiences, and from an early age was dependent upon his own resources. During one summer he worked on a Government steamboat running on the Wisconsin River. For one or two winters he was employed in the pine woods.
It was in 1873 that Mr. Carpenter began his service with the Chicago Northwestern Railway and with headquarters at Baraboo. At fist he was employed in the bridge department, but in 1876 secured a job as freight brakeman, and in 1881 was promoted to freight conductor. After ten years in that, capacity he was promoted to passenger conductor in 1891, and for over a quarter of a century has had charge of some of the passenger trains of the Northwestern Railway. In 1895 Mr. Carpenter built one of the handsomest homes of Baraboo at 407 Second Street. He and his family have lived there for many years and have surrounded themselves with the comforts and also with many social pleasures. Politically Mr. Carpenter is a republican but has confined his work in politics to voting.
On February 6, 1879, he married Miss Frances Stone. Mrs. Carpenter was born in Columbia County, Wisconsin, November 13, 1854, daughter of John and Esther (Sharp) Stone. Her parents were pioneers in Columbia County, but subsequently removed to Baraboo, where they .spent their last years. Her mother died in 1900.
Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter had one daughter, Perliett C., who was born June 26, 1883, was well educated in the Baraboo High School and was just at the entrance of a beautiful young womanhood when she was taken away by death August 22, 1901.

Mary Evelyn Harlow

Mary Evelyn Harlow Carpenter, wife of Joseph H. Carpenter, 3rd great grandson of Joseph (14) Carpenter, wrote The Carpenters of Fort Carpenter, 1746- 1949 (privately published at Covington, VA, cl949).
It is a valuable work on one line of descent from Joseph the pioneer but virtually impossible to obtain. The author (Paul Mowrey) was fortunate enough to borrow Fort Carpenter's only copy for xeroxing during a 1989 visitation and return the original at his convenience by insured parcel post.

8792. Mary Carpenter

Per G. Murray.

CENSUS: 1840 US Census - likely a child under age 5 with parents
CENSUS: 1850 US Census - with parents - Mary age 14 but also an Elizabeth age 7
CENSUS: 1860 US Census - NOT with parents - should about 24.

COMMENT:
There is at least 3 maybe 4 (likely married name?) Mary Carpenters in the Anson, Stanly County area in the 1850s into the 1880s.
None of their families move to TN. For an unmarried young woman moving from NC to TN without family support is a very low possibility.

Subject: Additional Information Needed On The Carpenters and Sanderfords of North Carolina
As per your request, I am contacting you by your personal email address. Any contact information of individuals with information on the Sanderfords or the Carpenters of North Carolina would be appreciated. Raleigh, NC is the only place that I have every found that had two pages of "Sanderford"s in the white pages of the 1996 telephone book. In the late 1990s I spent hours in the public library in downtown Nashville doing research on the Sanderford family looking for the branch from Franklin, North Carolina.
Joel Gray Sanderford, my great great grand father, married Sarah Elizabeth Carpenter in 1828 in Alabama. I found a note from a relative giving the name of "Noah Carpenter" as being the grandfather of John Rice Sanderford, my great grandfather and son of Joel Gray and Sarah Elizabeth. I have not found any "Noah Carpenter"s on the Carpenters side. I have also tried Noah Sanderford with no success.
Some other family information states, that Joel Gray Sanderford went to Alabama with Sarah Elizabeth Carpenter's family and the Alford family. They all traveled together and obtain land in Alabama after leaving North Carolina.
Any information that you may have would be appreciated. Thank you for making contact with me.

OBIT:
Allen Carpenter
Civil War veteran - On 07/29/1861 in Stanley , NC enlisted as private.
from American Civil War Research Database, Soldiers from Ancestry.com 12/28/99.

From the Stanly Herald - 07/17/1923
Old Veteran 80 Years Old Run Down by Auto, Sunday
A most deplorable accident happened on Sunday afternoon near the Efird Graded Scholl building in West Ablemarle when an auotmobile driven by Miss Mary Milton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Milton of Eastern Stanly, ran down Mr Allen Carpenter of this place, an old Confederate Veteran about eighty years old, inflicting injuries which resulted in his death shortly after noon today. Medical aid was summoned as quickly as possible after the accident and everything possible was done for thinjured man's relief. One of his legs was completely crushed and one arm sustained a badly shattered bone. Mr Carpenter was also injured internally aand sustained several bad bruises about his face. From the beginning Dr. C.M.Lentz who attended Mr. Carpenter, held out very little encouragement for his recovery but the olf veteran was a better fighter in his last fight than his physician expected, holding ht "Grim Reaper" at bay for nearly 48 hours before the end came.

Just how the accident happened no one seems to be able to tell. Another young lady was riding with Miss Morton at the time of the occurence and it is understood that they both claim the deplorable crash was entirely unavoidable. Near the point where the deplorable crash came the street which is the one used for main travel from Albemarle to Saulsbury, is intersected by another street running dowwn from in front of Efird Graded School and the embankment is so high that travelers on either of these streets cannot see cars on the other until within a very few feet of each other. It is reported however, that witnesses will be produced tending to show some degree of recklessness of the driver of the automobile on this occasion. At any rate circumstances are such as to lead the officers of the law to give the matter a thorough investigation. A warrant has been issued against Miss Morton and she has been placed under bond of $1,000 which, since the death of Mr. Carpenter, will possibly be increased to a larger amount. She will be given a preliminary hearing possibly one day this week. The young lady will no doubt be required to defend herself against a charge of manslaughter.
As we go to press no arrangements have been made as to the funeral servives, which will probably be held sometime tomorrow.

BOOK:
unknown book information.
The info below text is from the image on Find A Grave of a book page.
2.105
The ninety-five volunteers who enlisted at Albemarle July 29, 1861, adopted .the rather impudent nickname "Stanly, Yankee Hunters" and included among their number the subject of this image, Private Allen Carpenter (born March 1841). The "Yankee Hunters" traveled to Camp Fisher, Near High Point, and in September became Company D, 28th Regiment, N.C. Troops. In March 1862 the 28th North Carolina joined the brigade commanded by General L. 0 Bryan Branch (7th, 18th. 28th, 33rd, and 37th North Carolina) and as part of that command served three years with the Army of Northern Virginia. Engaged on virtually every battlefield of Lee's army from Hanover Court House to Appomattox Court House, Branch's regiments (commanded after his death at Sharpsburg by General James H. Lane) probably sustained the greatest loss from battle and disease of any brigade in the army. (Mortality in the five Tar Heel regiments exceeded thirty-three hundred men, including 710 from the 28th North Carolina.)
Despite those horrendous casualties, Allen Carpenter's military records disclose few details: All surviving muster rolls of his company report him as present or accounted for, and he surrendered at Appomattox Court House on April 9, 1865. (Muster rolls for the "Yankee Hunters" are missing for a large part of the war, including January 1863-August 1864, however, and it is possible that Carpenter suffered a wound or serious illness that was not recorded on a subsequent roll.)

In later years Carpenter spoke little of his war experiences but did recount one shattering incident. During the Pettigrew-Pickett Charge at Gettysburg on July 3, 1863, the 28th North Carolina, having advanced near the Federal lines on Cemetery Ridge, retreated. As the survivors fell back, covering the same ground over which they had moved forward, the dead and wounded lay so thick that they could not walk on the ground. Glancing down, Carpenter was horrified to find himself standing on the dead body of his younger brother, Private Churchwell Carpenter.
On July 10, 1923, Allen Carpenter was struck and run over by an automobile near Albemarle. Suffering from internal injuries, as well as a crushed arm and leg, he died on July 15.
Carpenter, clad in a dark sack coat and light-colored forage cap, is shown holding a D-guard bowie knife and a Smith & Wesson "Model No. 1" rimfire revolver, caliber .22. (Nothing in this image indicates where it was made or the identity of the photographer, but one can speculate that the photographer may have been Private W. B. Morton of the "Yankee Hunters," who listed his occupation as "daguerran artist" when he enlisted the same day as Carpenter. Morton died of pneumonia and diarrhea on January 30, 1862).

Thomas J. Carpenter-73418 of Simeon Carpenter-73148 of John Carpenter-5351 b. abt 1764 Nash, NC M. abt 1790 , Greene, AL *d. 1824 Newman,, GA Spouses: Elizabeth UpChurch, Mary ? and Mary Lee ?. AND way to many children!!! of Thomas "Jack" Carpenter-5337 b. 1740 Botetourt, VA d. 6 Aug 1803 ,, NC - See Group 13.

This line was supposed to be members of Group 2, but ...
Genetically tested descendants of Thomas "Jack" Carpenter-5337 are in Group 13 and Group 16. We do not know if this was an adoption situation or what. This line went from VA through Nash County, NC, to Greene County, AL (some alternating between NC & AL and one dying in Newman, GA - note this last one wrong - see below)) then Albert born in LA before winding up in TX.
Someone got that all messed up. This was one of those "somebody said" and everyone copied it, including me at one point. However, now we know the John who died 1824 in Newman, COWETA, GA was John Carpenter the son of Abigail Jordan. He was definitely not the John of NC. Anson Co NC had both an Allen & a Thomas Carpenter listed in 1840 Anson Co but that Thomas was still there in 1860.

There was also a Thomas Carpenter in Wake Co NC in 1840 that was of right age to be Allen's father. Some folks on Ancestry show Simeon of Franklin Co NC as his father but no one has any sources. Thomas was in Sumter Co AL by 1850 where Allen b.1832 is in household. Then Allen is found in MS then LA with son Albert. Then Albert is found in Limestone. So, the latter part was pretty simple to piece together.

Here is what I show for the Greene Co AL Carpenters (Sumter is next to Greene, Montgomery & Washington. BLM shows no old deeds for Carpenters in Sumter):

1. Jubal, Benjamin & Churchwell Carpenters "all" deeded Greene Co in 1823. Records show them born in NC.
2. John Carpenter deeded land in Greene Co in 1828 & 1831 which is hard to do if he died in 1824. He is said to have married Elizabeth Upchurch.
John is said to be older than the other 3 and presumably their father.
John is said to be the son of Thomas Jack Carpenter. This info from others, I've not researched it.
3. Thomas Jack Carpenter d.circa 1803 in Nash Co NC.
4. I found the following land patents for Carpenters in 1830s Greene Co AL:
SIMEON (1830 1837) THOMAS (1834 1837) BENJAMIN (1835) CHURCHWELL M. (1832 1833)
FURNEY L. (1833 1834) JOHN R. (1834) JOHN (1831 1837) JUBAL Jubill? (1837)
KENNITH (1837) PHILLIP (1837) LEE (1834) LEROY (1837)
and SHADRACH (1834)

Thomas Carpenter (1811 or Feb 1908) might be the one listed in the 1830 Greene Co AL census (of right age with a wife and one young daughter). His son Allen stated he was born in AL so Thomas had to be there by 1832.

The Thomas in question (1811 - Feb 1809) was in Sumter in 1850 with Allen in hshold and then still in Sumter Co in 1860 and Allen was not (Allen was in Lauderdale MS). So it is very possible that Allen (1832) 's father Thomas (1811) was of the Greene Co Carpenter line. But if Thomas's father was John of Greene Co, his father did not die in 1824 GA. John of Greene Co was alive in the 1830 census, age 60-69.

If you want a descendant of Albert, you might try contacting the owner of this tree:

The screen name is jackiepassey40 and has lots of family details.
However, I don't think this person is related to Group 16. As noted in my previous email, I think Albert descends from the Greene Co AL Carpenters who were all from NC.

Some claim without proof that she married an Edmund Murray and others an Edward Coley. And some even combine these names into one person. Some speculate that he abandoned his family and in spite she denied her children his surname.
NEEDLESS TO SAY - There is more speculation and guess work than any fact associated with her marriage. What is really known is listed below.

The only date is April 7, 1886. I don't know if it is a birth date or death date because his wife was born in 1855 and on her death certificate it lists her as married and husband as W. F. McIntyre.

His full name was William Franklin McIntyre. I expect the date on the stone is a mistake for his birthday. (The 1900 census says he was born in April 1865). He was a son of George Emory McIntryre, a CSA soldier, and his wife Caroline Carpenter.
